Ike's Doctors Say Condition Remains Critical

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army doctors reported today the condition of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower remains critical and evidence of his congestive heart failure persists "despite the fact that all appropriate therapeutic measures are being utilized."

A morning medical bulletin read to reporters by Col. John L. Bradley, executive officer of the Walter Reed Army Hospital, also said Eisenhower "slept comfortably through most of the night."

"He continues to enjoy brief visits with members of the immediate family," it added.

Reporters asked whether use of the word "critical" in Tuesday night's bulletin and again today meant that Eisenhower was "near death." Doctors replied "not necessarily."

But in reply to another question they said it was "uncertain" how long a patient in Eisenhower's general physical condition "and not responding to treatment" could be expected to endure severe congestive heart failure.

Asked to compare the 78-year-old general's condition at the present time with his condition last August—at the time of his seventh and most recent coronary heart attack and when doctors described it as "very critical"—they replied: "His condition is considered to be critical."

They attributed Eisenhower's "remarkable ability to recover from so many major illnesses" to "his inherent stamina."

The physicians also said Eisenhower is always conscious "except when sleeping" and added he is lucid enough to converse easily with those around him.

Big Four Meet On Mid East

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — After weeks of private discussion, the Big 4 delegates at the United Nations are ready to gather around the table and consider how to get a durable peace in the Middle East.

Some sources say the four-man talks, motivated more by fear of failure than by hope of success, will get under way next week.

President Nixon appears to be counting most heavily on Soviet cooperation to bring about a settlement that would give Nixon a major achievement in the foreign field. It also would be a big boost for Secretary-General U. Thant and the United Nations.

The United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France appear to agree that they should utilize Gunnar Jarring, Thant's special Middle East envoy.

Jarring, Sweden's ambassador to Moscow, has been trying since December, 1967, to get Israel and the Arabs to work out peace terms based on the U.N. Security Council's Nov. 22, 1967, resolution. The resolution called for Israeli withdrawal from Arab territory occupied during the 1967 war and Arab recognition of Israel as a sovereign state with defined frontiers.

Weather

ESCANABA AND VICINITY—Mostly cloudy and cool today and tonight and Thursday with occasional light snow or flurries. High today mid 20s. Low tonight 15. High Thursday mid 20s. Friday's outlook: little change. The highest temperature yesterday was 31 and the overnight low was 17. Winds north to northwest 15 to 25 mph today, diminishing to 5 to 12 mph tonight and Thursday. Precipitation probabilities: today, 50%; tonight and Thursday, 30%. Two inches of snow on the ground.

Upper Peninsula — Variable cloudiness and continued rather cold through Thursday with periods of light snow or snow flurries. Highs this afternoon in the 20s. Lows tonight 10 to 20. Highs Thursday 25 to 33. Sun sets today at 6:08 p. m., and rises Thursday at 5:39 a. m.

Viet Cong Mortars Blast Ammo Dump

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong mortars smashed into a major American base south of Saigon early today, blowing up hundreds of tons of ammunition, wrecking scores of buildings, and destroying three helicopters. Only a few Americans were killed, but more than 60 were wounded.

Shelling of the headquarters base of the 9th Infantry Division at Dong Tam, 40 miles south of Saigon, was one of 30 rocket and mortar attacks by the Viet Cong on the 32nd night of their spring offensive.

North Vietnamese troops followed up one of the attacks with an infantry charge that carried them to the barbed wire perimeter of another American base 45 miles northwest of Saigon. Before they were driven off eight American air cavalrymen were killed, 17 were wounded and only two enemy bodies were found on the barbed wire.

Lost 500 Tons Of Ammo
Col. Ira Hunt of McLean, Va., chief of staff of the 9th Division, estimated that as much as 500 tons of ammunition, mostly small arms, went up in the attack on the Dong Tam base.

"We were expecting it because we had information from a prisoner," Hunt told AP photographer Max Nash.

Hunt said about 13 rounds of the enemy arsenal, slammed into the base an hour and a half before midnight but caused little damage.

"We thought that was it," said Hunt. "Many men had left their bunkers after the first attack."

Then came another barrage about midnight. One of the first shells hit an ammunition storage pad, triggering a series of explosions in at least half a dozen more pads. After that the Americans couldn't distinguish the incoming rounds from their own exploding ammunition.

Helicopters Lost
Two crews got their helicopters off the ground but were knocked down by the exploding shells. A third helicopter was destroyed on the ground.

The 9th Division base has been shelled more than a dozen times during the enemy's spring offensive.

Scores of helicopters and hundreds of tons of ammunition and fuel have been lost, but the U.S. Command has never disclosed the exact amounts.

"We don't like us," said Col. Hunt. "We've killed 2,800 enemy troops so far this month."

About 200 North Vietnamese tried to ambush a 100-vehicle convoy of the 25th Infantry Division 33 miles northwest of Saigon. Lying in wait in palm trees and bamboo stalks on one side of the highway, the enemy opened up with machine guns and rocket-propelled grenades.

Military Police with the convoy retaliated with .50-caliber machine guns mounted in groups of four on 2-ton trucks. Then U.S. tanks with 90mm cannon closed in from two sides on the North Vietnamese, sending them fleeing.

"They didn't have a chance to get off more than five minutes of fire before we ran them out of the area," said a 25th Division spokesman.

These were the findings of a previously classified document that Rep. Samuel Stratton, D-N.Y., ordered the Army to release Tuesday after six days of secret testimony on the Sheridan tank.

Stratton, chairman of the subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee, said "the people have a right to know this incredible story."

Stratton charged that the Army had rushed the weapons system into combat and mass production in order to eliminate its possible cutback or elimination by the Bureau of the Budget and the secretary of defense.

He succeeded during the hearings in winning admission from one Army officer, Lt. Col. Stan Sheridan, that the tank was recommended for production for budgetary reasons although tests had indicated there were many problems.

Later, Sheridan's superiors heatedly denied this, despite an internal memorandum in the subcommittee's possession in which this point was stressed by Sheridan.

Five Miles Per Hour
The secretary acknowledged the need for new highways but said "we wouldn't be in the mess we're in today" if mass transit systems had been built as fast as expressways.

Pakistan's Dictator Says He'll 'Bring Back Sanity'

KARACHI (AP) — Pakistan's new military dictator, Gen. Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan, told his turbulent nation today he would "bring back sanity" to set the stage for free elections.

"I wish to make it absolutely clear to you that I have no ambition other than the creation of conditions conducive to the establishment of a constitutional government," he said in his first broadcast after taking over from President Mohammed Ayub Khan.

Sixteen hours before Ayub Khan resigned after appointing Yahya supreme commander of Pakistan's armed forces and chief martial law administrator, Yahya's promise to "bring back sanity" was the same made by Ayub when he seized power in 1958 and ruled by martial law for three years.

Back On Rails

Ayub, who announced earlier he would not seek re-election next year, admitted Tuesday night this did not satisfy his political opponents and he could not cope with mob violence wrecking Pakistan's eastern half, on the other side of India.

"My first task is to put the administration back on the rails," Yahya said. "Strikes and industrial unrest have brought the nation to the edge of an abyss."

He assured the people the armed forces "have no political ambitions and will not prop up any individual or party," and he indicated he would go through with constitutional reforms promised by Ayub before his resignation.

Pro-West Views

Yahya, 52, is considered to have pro-Western views despite visits to Moscow and Peking earlier this year. He fought with British forces in Italy and the Middle East during World War II and was appointed Ayub's military commander in East Pakistan in 1962. In the 1965 Indian-Pakistani war he commanded an infantry division and was decorated for bravery." He became commander-in-chief of the army in 1966.

Martial law regulations announced by Radio Pakistan banned all strikes, demonstrations and political meetings; imposed strict press censorship, and provided for establishment of military courts.

Plants Closed

Despite the strike ban, plants remained closed in Karachi's industrial area and police were hard put to separate rival mobs of workers.

Nurses announced they would strike across the nation today because the government has not accepted their wage demands. Gas workers called an indefinite strike. Railwaymen threatened a nationwide stoppage unless their wage demands are met within two days.

In the East Pakistani capital of Dacca, most Pakistani airline flights were canceled when pilots and other employees of Pakistan International Airways walked out.

Reports of murder and mob violence continued to come in from East Pakistan, although Gov. Mirza Huda told a news conference Tuesday there was a "distinct improvement" in the situation. He said the army had been reinforced to assist civil authorities in maintaining order.

Mansfield Wants Spending Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield says Congress should insist on a second big spending cut as its price for extending the 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

And the Senate's Democrat spokesman said Congress should decide where the cuts are made—unlike last year when it left most of the trimming to former President Johnson.

It was announced Tuesday that President Nixon would ask Congress today for a year's extension of the surtax. His request is expected to win approval, but, as with most taxes, neither quickly nor cheerfully.

Nixon's announcement came more than three months before the current surtax expires June 30 and on the heels of a report that the cost of living in the nation has gone up sharply.

Mansfield said in an interview that, if Congress goes along with the President, it should "impose a $10 billion cut in requested appropriations and a reduction of $5 billion in actual expenditures as a price to be paid for continuing this heavy taxation."

Laying down a Democratic position, he said cuts should be made in defense funds, and in spending for overseas bases, deployment of the Safeguard anti-missile system, the space program and for research and development.

Rather than tossing this issue to the President, I think Congress should share the responsibility by directing him where to make the reductions," Mansfield said.

Backers of the extension contend the surtax will produce an additional $10 billion in revenue, needed to head off an inflation-fueled budget deficit of unacceptable proportions in the next fiscal year, which begins July 1.

Dr. Polley Answers Varnum

Views On Parochialism Wouldn't Add Light

LANSING (AP) — Despite a lawmaker's charge that he is continuing to "duck the issue," the state superintendent of public instruction declined again Tuesday to take a stand on state aid to nonpublic schools.

Dr. Ira Polley said he would stand on views expressed in an earlier letter to Rep. Charles Varnum, R-Manistiquette.

"I have frequently been urged to state my opinion on the non-public aid question," Polley said last month.

But, he added, "my opinion would be just that—an opinion—and in all likelihood would contribute little knowledge to people in such positions as yours and in whose hands the primary answer rests."

Polley added: "There apparently are many willing to forward their views, adding little light but considerable heat to the general situation, and I feel that this might be the case with me."

"There are, however, many educational problems of considerable degree toward which I feel I can contribute and am doing all I can to fulfill this considerable task," he added.

Varnum said Tuesday his "patience is nearing an end."

"Dr. Polley has refused to commit himself," Varnum said. "I think that the state's top education official should express his opinions on this vital issue if anyone should."

"I want to make my decision on this issue on the basis of what is best for the total education picture in Michigan," he said. "But arriving at such a decision will be extremely difficult if our top education experts continue to duck the issue."

Varnum earlier said that he had been denied continuance on the House's important Ways & Means Committee by the Democratic leadership of the House because he had not aligned himself with proponents of parochialism.

Varnum said he wanted to have all the facts on both sides of the non-public aid issue before making his decision and casting his vote.

Varnum is a former school teacher.

Call New Army Tank Billion Dollar Boo Boo

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of a House subcommittee has accused the Army of a "billion-dollar boo boo" in developing a new tank because: —Although the tank is for reconnaissance, it can be heard three miles away.

—It has a "rooster tail exhaust" system that makes it an easy target.

—Its caseless ammunition is ultraflammable, leaves burning residue in the breach which can prematurely ignite a round, and is adversely affected by moisture, oil, and rough handling.

—Due to a problem with fuel-tank leaks, frequent checks for spilled fuel should be made to prevent fires.

—When operating in jungle or heavy underbrush, vegetation will clog air intake grills and the radiator, requiring frequent cleaning to avoid overheating.

—The (Shillelagh) missile must not be fired when the launch vehicle is in motion.

—Under extremely dusty conditions, the present air cleaner requires cleaning or replacement every 1½ hours.

These were the findings of a previously classified document that Rep. Samuel Stratton, D-N.Y., ordered the Army to release Tuesday after six days of secret testimony on the Sheridan tank.

Stratton, chairman of the subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee, said "the people have a right to know this incredible story."

Stratton charged that the Army had rushed the weapons system into combat and mass production in order to eliminate its possible cutback or elimination by the Bureau of the Budget and the secretary of defense.

He succeeded during the hearings in winning admission from one Army officer, Lt. Col. Stan Sheridan, that the tank was recommended for production for budgetary reasons although tests had indicated there were many problems.

Later, Sheridan's superiors heatedly denied this, despite an internal memorandum in the subcommittee's possession in which this point was stressed by Sheridan.

News In Brief

LANSING (AP) — Gov. William Milliken declined today to give his reactions to a recently passed Senate bill which would raise the ceiling on mortgage rates on homes and small unincorporated businesses from seven to nine per cent.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, declaring that "inflation is a form of economic aggression," proposed to Congress today that the problem be met by extending the income tax surcharge for another 12 months and by making significant cuts in federal spending.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A secret vote among Democrats on the House Judiciary Committee has indicated overwhelming support for a constitutional amendment providing direct election of the President.

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli warplanes attacked an Arab guerrilla base near the Jordanian town of Salt today, the army announced.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau flew back to Canada early today, unsure about the implications of the American antimissile system but certain to face more questioning from its critics and other members of his Cabinet.

Transit Breakthrough Or Curb City Autos: Volpe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe says it may be necessary to curb the use of automobiles in the nation's cities unless a mass transit breakthrough is achieved within two years.

"Some type of mass transportation has got . . . to get into operation pretty rapidly or we do face the real possibility that either we have to shut off to rubber tires certain limited areas within a city or charge a fee to come in there," Volpe said in an interview with The Associated Press.

Five Miles Per Hour
The secretary acknowledged the need for new highways but said "we wouldn't be in the mess we're in today" if mass transit systems had been built as fast as expressways.

Volpe predicted that the motorist would begin looking for alternatives to being mired in traffic jams.

"If you get down to a point where automobiles have to travel five miles an hour, well, you know how long people are going to use them," he said. "They are going to walk to work instead of ride. Of course, it wouldn't hurt them if they did, either, I might add."

"Bold new ideas" are needed, Volpe said. But he added it would probably be five years before new developments could be in service.

"We can't wait that long for some of these things," he said. Here are excerpts from the interview:

Q What veto power, if any, should central city residents have over freeway construction in their neighborhoods?

Final Judgment

A Any responsible group should certainly have an opportunity to voice its opinions strongly and in the clearest terms. I think it is up to public agencies . . . to listen to these inputs on the part of neighborhood groups or citywide groups, action-oriented groups, . . . or whatever they might be.

But in the final analysis it is the elected or appointed officials who have to make some final judgments . . .

Expressways are only one form. I'm convinced that you just don't stop a highway program because, perhaps, a few additional homes will have to be taken.

But, by the same token, you just can't depend on a highway program to do the job completely, because it can't do the job. This has been proven in New York City . . . where over half a century ago 1917, I guess, the pushcart era the average speed was 11 miles an hour. Today it's 7 miles an hour in New York. So we haven't made much progress in over half a century. So something needs to be done. And it needs to be done in a bold and imaginative way . . .

Auto Tax

Q How do you think the highway lobby would greet a stoppage of automobile use in central cities during business hours?

A I think they recognize the highway user himself is going to become so frustrated that he is

All Peninsula Change Ruled For April 27

Two years of confusion in the Upper Peninsula apparently was ended Tuesday in Washington when Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe ruled that the Upper Peninsula of Michigan will operate under Eastern Standard Time.

Rep. Philip E. Ruppe (R-Michigan), who reported Volpe's action, said the change from the Central to Eastern Time Zone will be effective Sunday, April 27, the same day the rest of the nation changes to Daylight Savings Time for the summer.

In the fall, however, when the country reverts to standard time, residents of the Upper Peninsula will not move clocks.

Under Volpe's ruling, all of Michigan will observe Eastern Standard Time. Daylight Savings Time was defeated in a statewide referendum last November.

Favor Eastern Time

Ruppe said some areas near the Wisconsin border — Menominee, Ironwood and Iron Mountain areas — expressed a preference for Central Standard Time with six months of Daylight Saving Time in the summer to conform with Wisconsin.

"However," he said, "since summer daylight time is not a legal option in Michigan, opinion coming into my office and into the Dept. of Transportation ran nearly 10 to 1 in favor of the Eastern Zone."

Before the federal Uniform Time Act was passed by Congress, most of the Upper Peninsula observed Eastern Standard Time year around except for the Wisconsin border areas, where Central Standard Time was observed in winter months and daylight savings time in summers.

Since 1966, however, time in the Upper Peninsula has been in a state of confusion with federal, state and local governments all voicing opinions.

Two Standards

In Escanaba and Delta County, for example, two time standards even were in force for brief periods of time with some businesses and agencies observing one hour and others another hour.

The action by Volpe in setting Eastern Standard Time for the Upper Peninsula, after the change is made on April 27, will eliminate any future changes in clocks. When the nation switches off Daylight Savings Time next fall, the Upper Peninsula will remain on Eastern Standard Time. (Daylight Savings Time was defeated for Michigan in last November's election.)

The action also will place clocks in Lower Michigan and the Upper Peninsula on the same hour for the first time since 1966, when Lower Michigan was placed in the Eastern Time zone and the Upper Peninsula in the central zone with both areas observing Daylight Savings Time in summer months and Standard Time in the winter.

Conflict Possible

Indications are, however, that not all of the Upper Peninsula will observe Eastern Standard Time, but the confrontation with the federal government probably will not come until the fall.

The City Council at Menominee has voted to observe time corresponding with hours in Marquette, which would place the city on Central Standard Time next October and in conflict with the federal time law.

During the coming summer months, Eastern Standard Time will place the city on the same hour with the Central Daylight Time observed in Marquette.

Eastern Time Ordered For U.P.

Ike's Doctors Say Condition Remains Critical

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army doctors reported today the condition of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower remains critical and evidence of his congestive heart failure persists "despite the fact that all appropriate therapeutic measures are being utilized."

A morning medical bulletin read to reporters by Col. John L. Bradley, executive officer of the Walter Reed Army Hospital, also said Eisenhower "slept comfortably through most of the night."

"He continues to enjoy brief visits with members of the immediate family," it added.

Reporters asked whether use of the word "critical" in Tuesday night's bulletin and again today meant that Eisenhower was "near death." Doctors replied "not necessarily."

But in reply to another question they said it was "uncertain" how long a patient in Eisenhower's general physical condition "and not responding to treatment" could be expected to endure severe congestive heart failure.

Asked to compare the 78-year-old general's condition at the present time with his condition last August—at the time of his seventh and most recent coronary heart attack and when doctors described it as "very critical," they replied: "His condition is considered to be critical."

They attributed Eisenhower's "remarkable ability to recover from so many major illnesses" to "his inherent stamina."

The physicians also said Eisenhower is always conscious "except when sleeping" and added he is lucid enough to converse easily with those around him.

Viet Cong Mortars Blast Ammo Dump

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong mortars smashed into a major American base south of Saigon early today, blowing up hundreds of tons of ammunition, wrecking scores of buildings, and destroying three helicopters. Only a few Americans were killed, but more than 60 were wounded.

Shelling of the headquarters base of the 9th Infantry Division at Dong Tam, 40 miles south of Saigon, was one of 30 rocket and mortar attacks by the Viet Cong on the 32nd night of their spring offensive.

North Vietnamese troops followed up one of the attacks with an infantry charge that carried them to the barbed wire perimeter of another American base 45

Helicopters Lost
Two crews got their helicopters off the ground but were knocked down by the exploding shells. A third helicopter was destroyed on the ground.

The 9th Division base has been shelled more than a dozen times during the enemy's spring offensive.

Scores of helicopters and hundreds of tons of ammunition and fuel have been lost, but the U.S. Command has never disclosed the exact amounts.

"They don't like us," said Col. Hunt. "We've killed 2,800 enemy troops so far this month."

About 200 North Vietnamese tried to ambush a 100-vehicle convoy of the 25th Infantry Division 33 miles northwest of Saigon. Lying in wait in palm trees and bamboo stalks on one side of the highway, the enemy opened up with machine guns and rocket-propelled grenades. Military Police with the convoy retaliated with .50-caliber machine guns mounted in groups of four on 2-ton trucks. Pakistan's Dictator Says He'll 'Bring Lack Sanity'

Transit Breakthrough Or Curb City Autos: Volpe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe says it may be necessary to curb the use of automobiles in the nation's cities unless a mass transit breakthrough is achieved within two years.

"Some type of mass transportation has got to get into operation pretty rapidly or we do face the real possibility that either we have to shut off to ruble tires certain limited areas within a city or charge a fee to come in there," Volpe said in an interview with The Associated Press.

Five Miles Per Hour

The secretary acknowledged the need for new highways but said "we wouldn't be in the mess we're in today" if mass transit systems had been built as fast as expressways.

Volpe predicted that the motorist would begin looking for alternatives to being mired in traffic jams.

"If you get down to a point where automobiles have to travel five miles an hour, well, you know how long people are going to use them," he said. "They are going to walk to work instead of ride. Of course, it wouldn't hurt them if they did, either, I might add."

"Bold new ideas" are needed, Volpe said. But he added it would probably be five years before new developments could be in service.

"We can't wait that long for some of these things," he said.

Here are excerpts from the interview:

Q. What veto power, if any, should central city residents have over freeway construction in their neighborhoods?

Final Judgement
A. Any responsible group should certainly have an opportunity to voice its opinions strongly and in the clearest terms, I think it is up to public agencies . . . to listen to these inputs on the part of neighborhood groups or citywide groups, action-oriented groups, . . . or whatever they might be.

But in the final analysis it is the elected or appointed officials who have to make some final judgments . . .

Expressways are only one form. I'm convinced that you just don't stop a highway program because, perhaps, a few additional homes will have to be taken.

But, by the same token, you just can't depend on a highway program to do the job completely, because it can't do the job. This has been proven in New York City . . . where over half a century ago—1917, I guess—the pushcart era—the average speed was 11 miles an hour. Today it's 7 miles an hour in New York. So we haven't made much progress in over half a century. So something needs to be done. And it needs to be done in a bold and imaginative way . . .

Auto Tax
Q. How do you think the highway lobby would greet a stoppage of automobile use in central cities during business hours?

A. I think they recognize the highway user himself is going to become so frustrated that he is

All Peninsula Change Ruled For April 27

Two years of confusion in the Upper Peninsula apparently was ended Tuesday in Washington when Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe ruled that the Upper Peninsula of Michigan will operate under Eastern Standard Time.

Rep. Philip E. Ruppe (R-Michigan), who reported Volpe's action, said the change from the Central to Eastern Time Zone will be effective Sunday, April 27, the same day the rest of the nation changes to Daylight Savings Time for the summer.

In the fall, however, when the country reverts to standard time, residents of the Upper Peninsula will not move clocks.

Under Volpe's ruling, all of Michigan will observe Eastern Standard Time. Daylight Savings Time was defeated in a statewide referendum last November.

Favor Eastern Time

Ruppe said some areas near the Wisconsin border — Menominee, Ironwood and Iron Mountain areas — expressed a preference for Central Standard Time with six months of Daylight Saving Time in the summer to conform with Wisconsin.

"However," he said, "since summer daylight time is not a legal option in Michigan, opinion coming into my office and into the Dept. of Transportation ran nearly 10 to 1 in favor of the Eastern Zone."

Before the federal Uniform Time Act was passed by Congress, most of the Upper Peninsula observed Eastern Standard Time year around except for the Wisconsin border areas, where Central Standard Time was observed in winter months and daylight savings time in summers.

Since 1966, however, time in the Upper Peninsula has been in a state of confusion with federal, state and local governments all voicing opinions.

Two Standards

In Escanaba and Delta County, for example, two time standards even were in force for brief periods of time with some businesses and agencies observing one hour and others another hour.

The action by Volpe in setting Eastern Standard Time for the Upper Peninsula, after the change is made on April 27, will eliminate any future changes in clocks. When the nation switches off Daylight Savings Time next fall, the Upper Peninsula will remain on Eastern Standard Time. (Daylight Savings Time was defeated for Michigan in last November's election.)

The action also will place clocks in Lower Michigan and the Upper Peninsula on the same hour for the first time since 1966, when Lower Michigan was placed in the Eastern Time zone and the Upper Peninsula in the central zone with both areas observing Daylight Savings Time in summer months and Standard Time in the winter.

Conflict Possible

Indications are, however, that not all of the Upper Peninsula will observe Eastern Standard Time, but the confrontation with the federal government probably will not come until the fall.

The City Council at Menominee has voted to observe time corresponding with hours in Marinette, which would place the city on Central Standard Time next October and in conflict with the federal time law.

During the coming summer months, Eastern Standard Time will place the city on the same hour with the Central Daylight Time observed in Marinette.

Milliken Is 47

LANSING (AP) — Gov. William Milliken's morning news conference opened with a song.

Newsman sang "Happy Birthday" to the governor, who was 47 today.

Milliken leaned back from the microphones and chuckled: "A bunch of hard-boiled newsmen and they sing in the morning?"

Seven Others Hospitalized

Girl, 21, Still Critical After Three-Car Crash

One of 10 persons injured in a three-car crash near Hermansville Tuesday remained in critical condition at a Green Bay, Wis., hospital this morning where she was taken Tuesday by ambulance plane.

Seven other persons injured in the accident were reported recovering from injuries at hospitals in Marquette, Iron Mountain and Norway.

Diane Cowley, 21, Norway, was listed in critical condition at St. Vincent's Hospital, Green Bay, after undergoing emergency surgery for head and internal injuries.

Miss Cowley was a passenger in a car driven by Ronald Warner, 21, Norway, which collided head-on about 1.5 miles west of Hermansville on U.S. 2 with a car driven by Ronald Pietrantonio, 23, Iron Mountain. State Police said the two cars then were struck by a third car driven by Marvel Christian, 18, of Vulcan.

Officers said the Pietrantonio car was westbound and the cars driven by Warner and Miss Christian were eastbound. The highway at the scene of the accident was snow covered and slippery, troopers said.

Besides the drivers, injured in the accident were: Duane Steinbeck, 25, Iron Mountain, Kenneth Degenauer, 30, Norway, and Charles Brucette, 38, Norway.

L. A. Johnson Dies Tuesday

Lawrence A. Johnson, 57, of Rte. 2, Stonington, died unexpectedly Tuesday.

He was born Feb. 15, 1912 in Stonington and retired May 1, 1968 as a Dredge Captain on the Great Lakes.

He is survived by his wife, the former Lillian Grandholm, three daughters, Mrs. John (Mary Lee) Wetterau of Allentown, Pa.; Mrs. Joseph (Eve) Young and Jill Johnson of Chicago, Ill.; one son Allen of Cleveland, Ohio; two sisters, Mrs. John (Myrtle) Erickson and Mrs. Stanley (Lillian) Danielson, both of Dearborn; three brothers, Carl and Arnold of Stonington and Robert of Bensonville, Ill.; and two grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Skradski Funeral Home from 4 to 9:30 p. m. Thursday and funeral services will be held at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Stonington at 11 a. m. Friday with the Rev. George E. Olson officiating. Burial will be in Lakewood Cemetery.

State's Trade With Japan Off, Mission Reports

Harry R. Hall, president of the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce represented 48 Michigan businessmen at the first general session of the Kawana Business Conference in Kawana, Japan on Tuesday. He spoke on "Social and Economic Developments in America and Michigan."

In commenting on trade with Japan, he said, "our deficit with Japan widened in 1968. Sales to Japan slowed from a 14 per cent advance in 1967 to a 9 per cent gain last year. The deceleration reflected a softening in import demand in Japan as the Japanese government imposed deflationary measures to moderate the excessively rapid rate of economic growth which has caused balance-of-payment problems."

Hall pointed out that the biggest economic problem facing Michigan and the United States in 1969 is inflation and measures to control inflation will slow economic expansion in 1969 to some degree, but said Hall, "both Michigan and the United States will experience moderate economic gains in 1969 with Michigan continuing to advance faster than the nation, as it did in 1968."

In talking of some of the serious social problems, Hall stated, "it is encouraging to report that business is taking leadership in mobilizing total community resources for resolution of many of the recognized human injustices that have existed over a period of years. Very substantial progress is being made in bringing previously disadvantaged people into productive jobs and integrating them into the decision-making processes of their communities."

way, all passengers in the Pietrantonio car; Linda Schulz, 18, Iron Mountain, James Mroz, 20, Norway, Miss Cowley, and Michael Tomasoski, 21, Norway, all passengers in the Warner car.

Pietrantonio and Mroz were transferred to St. Luke's Hospital in Marquette where they were reported in satisfactory condition this morning.

Steinbeck, Degenauer, Warner, Miss Schulz and Miss Christian remained hospitalized today at Dickinson Memorial Hospital, Iron Mountain, or Anderson Memorial Hospital, Norway. None of the victims was reported in serious condition, however.

Brucette and Tomasoski were released from hospitals Tuesday after being treated for minor injuries.

State Police said the accident, which happened about 10:30 a.m., is still under investigation. The injured were taken to hospitals by ambulances.

Death Claims Herbert Olson

Herbert Olson, 79, former Rapid River resident, died Tuesday evening at the McLaren Hospital in Flint, where he has been a patient since March 1.

He was a former janitor of the Rapid River public schools, retiring ten years ago and a member of the Calvary Lutheran Church. His wife, the former Edna Christenson, preceded him in death twelve years ago.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Bruce (Miriam) Fitzsimmons of Harrisburg, Pa.; one son Fredolph of Grand Blanc and two grandchildren.

Funeral services have been tentatively scheduled at the Skradski Funeral Home Saturday morning.

Briefly Told

Traffic court notices were issued by city police to Rodney L. Savola, Trenary, failing to exercise due care, and to Norris C. Beno, Green Bay, no license plates.

The Gem & Mineral Club will meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the Senior High School, and those attending are asked to use the northeast door. Agates should be brought for identification and trade and other items for display.

Winners in the spring forensics meet at Rapid River last week will compete in the Upper Peninsula finals April 26 at Escanaba, not March 28, as reported Tuesday. Gretchen Kaukola represented Rapid River High School, not Rock.

William E. Woolford, Marquette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Woolford, 210 N. 13th St., Escanaba, was named to the Dean's List at Northern Michigan with an average of 3.25 for the last term. Woolford and his wife, the former Karen Estrem of Manistique, reside at 327 W. Washington St., Marquette.

The reunion committee of the Escanaba High School Class of 1960 is looking for the addresses of the following persons: Roderick Liberty, Melvin Erickson, Robert Kelsey, William Abbott, Dennis Briggs, Robert Caswell, Barbara Gasman, Sharon Grivas, Janet Hammell. Information should be called to Sandy Pilon, 786-6146 or Nancy Juhl, 786-5776.

Gerald C. Hannemann, 47, of 1204 12th Ave. S., owner of Jerry's Sport Shop, 1305 Ludington St., paid a $35 fine and $13.50 costs in District Court after he pleaded guilty to a charge of being delinquent in remitting to the State of Michigan money received from the sale of hunting and fishing licenses during the past seven months. Dept. of Natural Resources officers said all delinquent fees have been paid. Officers also reported that Harold C. Hilling, 18, Rock, paid a $10 fine and $10.50 costs in District Court after pleading guilty to a charge of transporting an unlicensed gun in a motor vehicle.

The regular immunization clinic at the Delta-Menominee District Health Dept. offices in the Delta County Building Friday has been canceled and clinics are scheduled instead from 3 to 5 p.m. Monday, March 31, and from 1 to 3 p.m. Thursday, April 3. The change was made in response to requests that clinics be scheduled on different days and also to accommodate children during the Easter vacation from school. Immunizations are recommended for people of all ages, especially tetanus booster shots, the health department advised, and recent allocations of measles vaccine have made it possible to offer the vaccine to anyone interested.

THE SMALL, sports model car driven by Ronald Pietrantonio, 23, of Iron Mountain, sits along the edge of U. S. 2 west of Hermansville Tuesday where it wound up after a head-on collision about 10:30 a. m. Ten persons were injured in the accident and eight remained hospitalized today, one in critical condition. State Police of the Stephenson Post said the highway was snow covered and slippery. Force Delta Jet To Cuba

MIAMI (AP) — A hijacker forced a Delta Air Lines jet carrying 114 persons, including 26 young Marine Corps recruits, to fly to Cuba early today.

The plane landed safely at Havana, where the security guard around the terminal area was so tight that foreign newsmen could not get a glimpse of the hijacker.

The plane was seized 10 minutes after takeoff from Dallas in the 21st hijacking of a commercial airliner to Cuba this year.

The DC8 was preparing to complete Delta's Flight 821 from Newark, N.J., to San Diego and Los Angeles when pilot William Wood radioed for permission to change course.

"Are you returning to the field?" asked the control center at Fort Worth, Tex.

"No," Capt. Wood said, "flying to Havana."

If Cuban authorities follow the pattern established in recent hijackings, the plane and its passengers would be released today for the return flight to the United States.

Several hours later, a Federal Aviation Administration spokesman said Havana airport had delayed a scheduled 5:20 a.m. EST departure of the plane. The spokesman said the jet was expected to make a brief stop in Miami before continuing on to Dallas.

going to be willing to experiment with anything rather than spend 13 per cent of his day and, maybe within a year or two, 20 per cent of his daily working hours behind another automobile and taking in all the fumes that come from it.

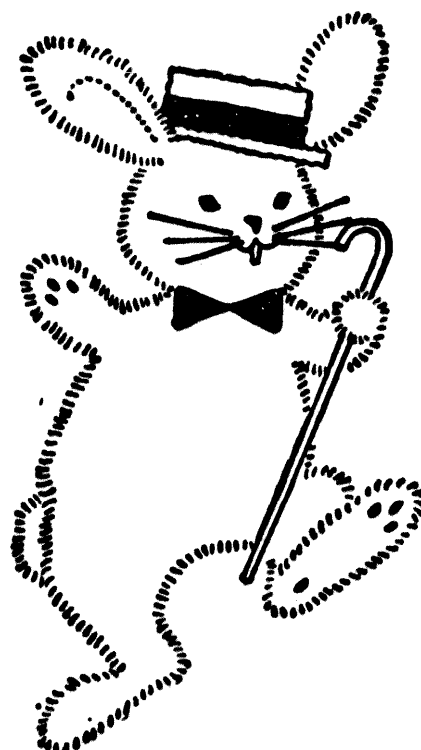

Q. Sen. Harrison Williams of New Jersey has proposed creation of an urban transit trust fund to be financed out of automobile excise taxes. What is your reaction to such a proposal?

A. As far as I'm concerned, I believe the trust fund concept is one way to finance it. I believe it's the surest way I have heard of. Someone may come up with a better answer. I haven't seen a better answer yet.

The Bonding Tizzy

Last Nov. 5 when Michigan voters authorized a $100 million state conservation bond issue there was the general public good feeling that we had taken a big step forward in the provision of needed outdoor recreational facilities.

Now we're embroiled in a jawoff about how the millions should be spent.

The Michigan United Conservation Clubs declares that if it had not strongly supported the bond issue it would have been rejected by the voters and this may well be the truth. Certainly the MUCC was influential in passage.

Now the MUCC is charging "sell-out!" It is saying angrily: "If voters cannot trust their government to honor its promises, neither can that government trust voters to twice fall into the same trap." Meaning, of course, that the next time the state comes to the MUCC for help with sportsmen support for conservation spending, that it'll take a rain check on cooperation. The bamboozled voter dislikes the government.

MUCC says that the bond issue was sold to the public on a basis of spending $30 million on city recreation projects and $70 million on state projects like campsites and fish hatcheries.

But when Governor William Milliken proposed to the Legislature an allocation of the bond funds, he asked $53 million for city areas. (It ranked outstate because Detroit, which would get a big share of the aid, voted down the bonds.)

Milliken said that he had not found himself committed as governor to a fixed division of the bond money and he proposed apportioning it on a basis of need. In this he was supported by ex-Gov. George Romney, who first proposed the bonding in his 1968-69 budget message with a 70-30 split, but who said in the bond campaign that the Legislature should determine the division.

The Department of Natural Resources did not appear on the surface as an advocate of the bonds, because it is the agency of immediate benefit and it was trying to avoid an appearance of self-interest. But it furnished the ammo for the chief and proper proponent of the bonding.

Governor Milliken won't be able now to please everyone in this matter. We sympathize with his position and compliment him on the courage of a right decision in urging that the money go in largest bundles where the greatest need exists.

But, practically, this doesn't square with the fact that the bond issue was sold to the public on a 70-30 split basis. If the Governor can get the public to believe that there was no commitment on division, the blow may be eased a bit, but there'll still be lots of ire outstate.

The Governor has his choice of keeping faith with the voters on commitments made by others, or of using his own judgment on greatest need for the funds. Since they will not suffice anyway for full solution of the problem it might be well to compromise on this occasion and try again later, with the hope that need and good will will team to solve the problem more completely.

It should be remembered that while the great benefit of close proximity to the bond-bought facilities will be lost to the big cities in the outstate projects, that they will still enrich the whole state and benefit everyone.

The federal government is the great hope of a green belt rescue of the big cities. It's just too much to expect that areas like the Upper Peninsula, striving for their own development so that they can create an income faintly comparable to Detroit's, will come to the rescue of Detroit in such matters.

Conspiracies

The "conspiracy theory" of industry has been dealt some hard blows lately.

This is the temptation to explain everything that happens in terms of mysterious "they" plotted against "us."

In New Orleans, a jury's speedy verdict of Not Guilty in the matter of Clay Shaw has blown the biggest hole yet in the leading conspiracy theory of our time. Not only was Shaw vindicated, but so was the Warren Commission's findings on the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

In Memphis, despite a cryptic remark by James Earl Ray that he did not agree with the FBI and the U. S. Justice Department that there was no conspiracy against the life of Martin Luther King, both prosecution and judge were convinced that Ray acted alone in the murder.

In Los Angeles, in the trial of Sirhan Sirhan for the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy, the evidence overwhelmingly points to this, too, being the work of one man. Here no conspiracy theory was ever seriously advanced; but because of the other assassinations, the possibility had to be investigated and refuted.

The conspiracy theory of history is not dead by any means, and never will be. When something happens that is not immediately explainable, it is easier to believe in a conspiracy than it is to believe those in positions of responsibility.

Protests and demonstrations to arouse the conscience of the people about certain evils in society are one thing. But war against society itself is an exercise in futility.

For society is not a conspiracy. It is a collection of individuals possessing varying degrees of wisdom and stupidity selfishness and altruism, with private interests and desires that sometimes interlock, sometimes conflict and almost always compete.

The evil in the world is not planned or conspired. It is the collective result of the individual greed, fear, prejudice and competition of faulty human beings.

God's Love Envelops The World

By DAVID POLING

We ought to collect all the definitions and interpretations of "love" to find the depth of this concept. In the New Testament we know that love can be sacrificial, it may be undeserved, it is found to be strengthening, outgoing, inseparable. Jesus used the word love, and by contrast consider what was not said:

that God loves the roll of church members and especially those graduated from church-related colleges that God loves and prefers the practices of the saints that God loves those who help themselves that God loves the English-speaking world best and America first that God loves the Holy Lands and most especially those areas west of Jordan

So, what an astounding and incomprehensible statement—that God loves the world!

This messy mankind with its kings and rogues, its scholars and dropouts, its streetwalkers and grandmothers, its gladiators and nurses' aides, its Albert Schweitzers and Joseph Stalins, its Martin Luther Kings and Ku Klux Klans.

When the writer of John said the world he meant the whole created earth, everyone and all, the least and the greatest, the lovely and the hated. He said that it was this world that God did not pity or ignore or detest or resent. He loved it. And how strange and sad that our attention is not directed to the needs and hopes of the world, but to the tax exemptions, privileges and the sighings of the institutional church, which has come to be served, instead of to serve, to be ministered unto, instead of to minister, to save itself in hopes that it will not die.

I don't believe that we will have any lasting or significant change in the marching orders of the church until we have a better grasp of God's concern for the world and the outward-bound momentum of a people following His concern. God didn't love another world. Nor a more receptive or kindly world. It's the piece of earth with its disease and disasters, its sunsets and race riots, its H-bombs and Broadway plays, its church burnings and rose festivals, its protest marches and red-carpet service.

The clergy and the laity need now to become lovers of the world for the sake of Jesus Christ.

One Christian, so admired and revered in this period, has said:

Man is challenged to participate in the sufferings of God at the hands of a godless world.

He must therefore plunge himself into the life of a godless world, without attempting to gloss over its ungodliness with a veneer of religion or trying to transfigure it. He must live a worldly life and so participate in the sufferings of God. To be a Christian does not mean to be religious in a particular way, to cultivate some form as asceticism—but to be a man. It is not some religious act which makes a Christian what he is, but a participation in the suffering of God in the life of the world.

Two days after he wrote that, Dietrich Bonhoeffer was hung for his participation in the world as a Christian who had become an activist in the plot to destroy Adolf Hitler.

"Civil defense" is the concerted response to an unusual emergency condition—a response that calls for maximum use of community resources, and with a greater need for coordination between emergency forces than usually exists.

Civil defense is "not" a special unit or group of people, standing by to save the day in case of a major disaster. Local police, fire, and other forces may sometimes need some trained auxiliaries to assist the regular force in disaster operations. Some additional trained people may be needed to monitor radioactive fallout with special instruments or to serve as public fallout shelter managers. But the forces "responsible" for civil defense operations are the normal forces of government—plus nongovernment personnel with needed skills, such as doctors.

The official in charge or in command during a civil defense emergency is the official who is always in charge—the mayor or other chief executive. He often has a key staff advisor or specialist called a civil defense director or coordinator, and there may be a staff office called the civil defense agency. It should be clearly understood, however, that the civil defense director is not "solely" responsible for civil defense preparations. Rather, he is a staff specialist for the chief executive.

Request Funds Spent On Poor

MOUNT PLEASANT (AP)—Dr. William B. Boyd, to be inaugurated May 12 as the seventh president of Central Michigan University, has requested that funds normally spent on a formal inauguration be used to help disadvantaged students.

The pomp and ceremony normally associated with inaugurations will be replaced by a simple event in the university fieldhouse, officials said.

"Contemporary problems highlight the urgency for an institution such as ours to concentrate its efforts and resources toward meeting the needs of all social and economic segments of our society," said Alfred Fortino, chairman of the CMU Board of Trustees, in a letter mailed this week to university and college presidents.

"Central Michigan University, will, therefore, allocate the funds which would have been designated for the traditional formal inauguration of Dr. Boyd to a fund to assist disadvantaged students," he continued.

Win At Bridge

By JACOBY & SON

The 1930 bridge writers were great experts in making up hands to fit their own special bidding systems that would not fit any other expert's system.

Today's hand shows the great advantage of a system that used opening bids of three clubs, two spades, two diamonds and two hearts for strong suit hands. These bids were not forcing but two clubs was and showed five or more quick tricks and a balanced hand. The bust response to this bid was two diamonds. This system is, of course, very similar to the British ACOL, except that their two-club bid is a game force and their other two bids one-round forces.

Today's hand was given by the inventor of this system to show how it was the only one that would work.

It certainly worked with his sample bidding. North tried three spades over the three-club response and South bid three no-trump because he had honors in both unbid suits. North was happy to pass. A diamond was led from the queen and declarer made five odd.

Oswald Jacoby, who played in those days, doubts if any pair that got started on this line of bidding would finish quite that low. South might well decide to go on to four clubs. Players of that day liked to rebid five-card suits. Even if South did go on to three no-trump, we feel that any North player worth his salt would note that he had two queens above his two-club opening and bid again. Pessimists might manage to stop at four no-trump. Optimists would get to six. Incurable optimists might even reach seven.

Like most hands of this type, point count would make it fairly clear that a slam should not be bid, but point count was not used seriously by many players of that day.

Husband Spends All His Time With Dogs

Dear Ann Landers: My husband has gone crazy over Golden Retrievers. He brought the third one home yesterday. Every evening after supper he goes out to run the dogs. I'm stuck in the house all day with two small children. At night I'm dying to hear an adult voice. And he goes out to fool around with animals.

Feeding those hounds is darned expensive. I could have had an ermine jacket with the money he has spent on dog food, shots and licenses these last two years. When I tell my husband he should get rid of the dogs and pay more attention to me and his sons, he says I'm a nag and to keep quiet because he won't do it.

I have discussed this with my mother, my two sisters, my aunt and the neighbors on both sides. They all agree I am right. What do you say? — Dog's Life

Dear Life: You may have won the poll, kiddo, but you're going to lose the guy if you don't muzzle the complaints. Considering what some married men do for recreation you have little to complain about. Look to the day when your husband can take the boys hunting and kitcherbeefin'.

Dear Ann Landers: I am an 18-year-old who wants to know how much of a say-so in my life my parents have.

According to law in this state a 18-year old can leave home, get married, and work at any job. But my parents don't feel that I have the right to decide which college to attend.

They say that since they are paying the bills I must go to the college of their choice. It so happens I prefer another college. I say it is my future and my life and I am the one who will have to do the studying and make the grades. They say college is a privilege and I should be thrilled to go to any place they select.

I am willing to work my way through if necessary, but first I want you to tell me if my parents have the right to make the selection. If you think my folks are right I will rethink the question. — Independent Or Stubborn?

Dear Independent: The choice should be left to the student. Work your way through if you feel so strongly about it. You'll probably do better than if you go to a school you don't like —

The Bonding Tizzy

Last Nov. 5 when Michigan voters authorized a $100 million state conservation bond issue there was the general public good feeling that we had taken a big step forward in the provision of needed outdoor recreational facilities.

Now we're embroiled in a jawoff about how the millions should be spent.

The Michigan United Conservation Clubs declares that if it had not strongly supported the bond issue it would have been rejected by the voters and this may well be the truth. Certainly the MUCC was influential in passage.

Now the MUCC is charging "sell-out!" It is saying angrily: "If voters cannot trust their government to honor its promises, neither can that government trust voters to twice fall into the same trap." Meaning, of course, that the next time the state comes to the MUCC for help with sportsmen support for conservation spending, that it'll take a rain check on cooperation. The burned child dreads the fire. The bamboozled voter dislikes the government.

MUCC says that the bond issue was sold to the public on a basis of spending $30 million on city recreation projects and $70 million on state projects like campsites and fish hatcheries.

But when Governor William Milliken proposed to the Legislature an allocation of the bond funds, he asked $53 million for city areas. (It ranked outstate because Detroit, which would get a big share of the aid, voted down the bonds.)

Milliken said that he had not found himself committed as governor to a fixed division of the bond money and he proposed apportioning it on a basis of need. In this he was supported by ex-Gov. George Romney, who first proposed the bonding in his 1968-69 budget message with a 70-30 split, but who said in the bond campaign that the Legislature should determine the division.

The Department of Natural Resources did not appear on the surface as an advocate of the bonds, because it is the agency of immediate benefit and it was trying to avoid an appearance of self-interest. But it furnished the ammo for the campaign, as it should have done, being the chief and proper proponent of the bonding.

Governor Milliken won't be able now to please everyone in this matter. He sympathize with his position and compliment him on the courage of a right decision in urging that the money go in largest bundles where the greatest need exists.

But, practically, this doesn't square with the fact that the bond issue was sold to the public on a 70-30 split basis. If the Governor can get the public to believe that there was no commitment on division, the blow may be eased a bit, but there'll still be lots of ire outstate.

The Governor has his choice of keeping faith with the voters on commitments made by others, or of using his own judgment on greatest need for the funds. Since they will not suffice anyway for full solution of the problem it might be well to compromise on this occasion and try again later, with the hope that need and good will will team to solve the problem more completely.

It should be remembered that while the great benefit of close proximity to the bond-bought facilities will be lost to the big cities in the outstate projects, that they will still enrich the whole state and benefit everyone.

The federal government is the great hope of a green belt rescue of the big cities. It's just too much to expect that areas like the Upper Peninsula, striving for their own development so that they can create an income faintly comparable to Detroit's, will come to the rescue of Detroit in such matters.

"Contemporary problems highlight the urgency for an institution such as ours to concentrate its efforts and resources toward meeting the needs of all social and economic segments of our society," said Alfred Fortino, chairman of the CMU Board of Trustees, in a letter mailed this week to university and college presidents.

"Central Michigan University will, therefore, allocate the funds which would have been designated for the traditional formal inauguration of Dr. Boyd to a fund to assist disadvantaged students," he continued.

The Jewish historian, Josephus, has been called the "Hebrew Livy" because of the character of his works.

Win At Bridge

By JACOBY & SON

The 1930 bridge writers were great experts in making up hands to fit their own special bidding systems that would not fit any other expert's system.

Today's hand shows the great advantage of a system that used opening bids of three clubs, two spades, two diamonds and two hearts for strong suit hands. These bids were not forcing but two clubs was and showed five or more quick tricks and a balanced hand. The bust response to this bid was two diamonds. This system is, of course, very similar to the British ACOL except that their two-club bid is a game force and their other two bids one-round forces.

Today's hand was given by the inventor of this system to show how it was the only one that would work.

It certainly worked with his sample bidding. North tried three spades over the three-club response and South bid three no-trump because he had honors in both unbid suits. North was happy to pass. A diamond was led from the queen and declarer made five odd.

Oswald Jacoby, who played in those days, doubts if any pair that got started on this line of bidding would finish quite that low. South might well decide to go on to four clubs. Players of that day liked to rebid five-card suits. Even if South did go on to three no-trump, we feel that any North player worth his salt would note that he had two queens above his two-club opening and bid again. Pessimists might manage to stop at four no-trump. Optimists would get to six. Incurable optimists might even reach seven.

Like most hands of this type, point count would make it fairly clear that a slam should not be bid, but point count was not used seriously by many players of that day.

Q—The bidding has been:
West North East South
1♣ 1♠ 2♥ 2♠
Pass 3♠ Pass ?

You, South, hold:

What do you do now?
A—Bid four hearts. This bid tells partner that you have solid hearts but can't afford to go past game on your own hook.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Your partner continues to four no-trump. You show two aces and he bids five no-trump. What do you do now?

Husband Spends All His Time With Dogs

Dear Ann Landers: My husband has gone crazy over Golden Retrievers. He brought the third one home yesterday. Every evening after supper he goes out to run the dogs. I'm stuck in the house all day with two small children. At night I'm dying to hear an adult voice. And he goes out to fool around with animals.

Feeding those hounds is darned expensive. I could have had an ermine jacket with the money he has spent on dog food, shots and licenses these last two years. When I tell my husband he should get rid of the dogs and pay more attention to me and his sons, he says I'm a nag and to keep quiet because he won't do it.

I have discussed this with my mother, my two sisters, my aunt and the neighbors on both sides. They all agree I am right. What do you say? — Dog's Life

Dear Life: You may have won the poll, kiddo, but you're going to lose the guy if you don't muzzle the complaints. Considering what some married men do for recreation you have little to complain about. Look to the day when your husband can take the boys hunting and kwitchebeefin'.

Dear Ann Landers: I am an 18-year-old who wants to know how much of a say-so in my life my parents have.

According to law in this state a 18-year-old can leave home, get married, and work at any job. But my parents don't feel that I have the right to decide which college to attend.

They say that since they are paying the bills I must go to the college of their choice. It so happens I prefer another college. I say it is my future and my life and I am the one who will have to do the studying and make the grades. They say college is a privilege and I should be thrilled to go to any place they select.

I am willing to work my way through if necessary, but first I want you to tell me if my parents have the right to make the selection. If you think my folks are right I will rethink the question. — Independent Or Stubborn?

Dear Independent: The choice should be left to the student. Work your way through if you feel so strongly about it. You'll probably do better than if you go to a school you don't like —

Sherman Hotel Given Notice

The Sherman Hotel management has been given 60 days to comply with requirements of the Escanaba housing, building and fire codes after a hearing before the Housing, Building and Fire Code Appeal Board at the City Hall Thursday.

Don Marvic represented the Sherman Hotel. The Appeal Board is composed of Frank Daley, chairman, Andrew Crestens, Don Scott and John Chylek.

The Sherman Hotel was cited last December by the Escanaba housing inspector and fire chief for violations of the housing and fire codes.

The Appeal Board on Thursday gave Marvic 60 days in which to comply with the requirements of the code. There will be 15-day periodic inspections and failure to comply will bring consideration of further action.

Marvic told the Appeal Board that he is hopeful the requirements can be met within the 60 days.

Heavy Losses In Biafran Ambush

UMUAHIA, Biafra (AP) — A year-long Nigerian campaign to open a 67-mile corridor through secessionist Biafra has failed with disastrous losses of men, the Biafrans said today.

In March 1968 a colonel and 15,000 to 20,000 men of the Nigerian 2nd Division set out from the former Biafran headquarters of Enugu for Onitsha on the Niger river. Six weeks later the colonel reached Onitsha with less than 1,000 men, the Biafrans claim.

The Nigerians captured the towns of Awka and Abagana along the 67-mile route, and overran Onitsha—but Biafran ambushes virtually decimated the federals. In one, at Abagana, they lost more than 100 vehicles and the Biafrans rushed foreign newsmen to the scene to display their trophies.

Since then the federal troops have maintained their hold on Awka, Abagana and Onitsha, but they have failed to keep open the highway linking them.

Grant

MARQUETTE—Northern Michigan University has been awarded a U. S. Office of Education grant of $21,900 to help train eight students in speech pathology and audiology.

SWITCHMAN Carl Johnson, left, is presented a safe driving award by Robert E. Bachus, central division plant manager for the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., at a luncheon in Marquette. Johnson represented Escanaba and Menominee area drivers who helped the 163 plant employees in the North District post the division's best safety record last year. The Upper Peninsula drivers bested more than 1,200 other Bell employees in the northern and central part of the Lower Peninsula.

New Nursing Home:

Go-Ahead Given 106-Bed Facility

The Four Seasons Nursing Home of Escanaba, Inc., was authorized to construct a 106-bed facility at approximately 2501 5th Ave. S. at a meeting of the Board of Appeals Thursday afternoon.

A stipulation is, however, that construction must begin by July 1, 1969, or the approval will become void.

John I. Rukavina, Marquette, acting secretary of the Four Seasons firm, indicated to the Board that the starting deadline on the project will be met. The Appeal Board was told that the facility will be primarily to house senior citizens, similar to the Bishop Noa Home for Senior Citizens. It will be one-story.

Previously the Appeal Board after hearing Rukavina advised that the structure contemplated was too large for the space requirements under the zoning ordinance. The Four Seasons since then purchased additional area, bringing the dimensions to 346 by 300 feet.

The Appeal Board is composed of William Morrow, chairman, Clarence Ehlers, Robert Jensen, Mrs. Lois Thompson and John J. Bartella.

A request of David Walch to construct an addition to house a car wash in the 1400 block, Ludington St. was approved by the Appeal Board. The car wash will be operated in conjunction with the service station.

The Board heard a request by Arthur DeGrand, Escanaba building contractor, to store trucks, trailers and other equipment behind his new residence at 3001 Lake Shore Drive. The request was referred to Planning Commission for consideration in the event a change in zoning from Class A residential is contemplated.

Offer Collegians Camp Job Help

College students seeking summer employment in camps as counselors, cooks, nurses, etc., are invited to contact the Michigan Employment Security Commission office in the State Office Building as soon as possible. The MESC has applications for camp positions which will be reviewed at a meeting in Detroit on Saturday, Apr. 5, when camp directors will be hiring staff. The MESC will make it possible for Upper Peninsula collegians to apply for camp work without attending the Detroit placement day screening.

First Robins Back From South

Mrs. Carl Lang, 815 S. 14th St., reports that she saw the first robin of the season in her bird feeder this morning. "He was a nice fat one and was helping himself to the bread-crumbs," she said.

The redwing blackbirds returned to Portage Marsh on Sunday and the ducks are returning there. The first geese returned to Seney a week ago.

Jacobetti For Lakfront Plant

State Rep. D. J. Jacobetti, (D-Negaunee) said today he fully supports plans of the Upper Peninsula Power Co. to build a power plant in Marquette Township.

He acknowledged that he has received complaints on the proposed power plant, but stressed, "Under no circumstances will I be a part to discouraging the construction of this plant in any other governmental unit but that of Marquette Township."

Initial costs of the plant are estimated at $18 million, but plans for additional units would increase this to as much as $200 million.

"The construction of the Upper Peninsula power plant in Marquette Township will provide a dependable and economical electric power supply to meet the expanding economy in the low-grade mining operations on the Marquette range," Jacobetti said. "Iron ore is a very competitive business. We must remain competitive with Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri and other mining areas in the world. Reasonable power rates are very essential to industrial expansion and growth."

Jacobetti said he has been informed that the power company will construct a park, accessible to the public, in the area of Little Presque Isle. Presently, the public has no legal right to trespass on Little Presque Isle because it is under private ownership.

He added that the new power plant will increase the tax base of Marquette Township. This, Jacobetti said, will provide the township with additional needed revenues to build water and sewage disposal facilities.

The power plant would service expansions of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co.'s mining operations in the Marquette Range.

Jacobetti noted that U. P. Power has had a good record in conservation and recreation.

The firm was one of the first industries in the Upper Peninsula to set aside land for public parks. All of its lands, some 58,000 acres, are open to hunting, fishing, camping and other recreational uses.

Jacobetti said he was assured by the company that its new plant would comply with all federal and state rules on air pollution.

The company serves approximately half of the Upper Peninsula with electric power.

The tug of interest between esthetics and economics is notable in support of the project in the local area and opposition from outside. The Milwaukee Journal said editorially that the $18 million power development "so dismayed nature lovers that 'Citizens To Save the Superior Shoreline' was formed. It was estimated that to move the plant inland would cost an additional $7 million. The water front site was sought for accessibility to lake water for cooling in its generating process.

Judge Urges Complete Program For Juveniles

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's juvenile offenders get out of detention facilities and "they're back in the same mess they were in before," a probate judge told a Senate committee Tuesday.

Wayne County Probate Judge James Lincoln used the analogy of a cat in a bag.

"If you've got a cat in a bag with nine holes, he's going to come out someplace unless you shut up all the holes," Lincoln said.

"We have to have a complete program for juveniles," Lincoln told a Senate State Affairs Committee hearing.

"That includes a probation system, different types of institutions, good programs in those institutions and after-care."

"Merely adding bed space (in existing juvenile facilities) means nothing," he said.

OK Department

Lincoln joined several juvenile authorities from across the state in urging legislative approval of a proposal to create a State Department of Youth Services.

The proposal, sponsored by Sen. N. Lorraine Beebe, R-Dearborn, was when first introduced subject to opposition from interests who advocate a 20th department for urban affairs, liquor control or different areas.

The state constitution limits principle state departments to 20 and Michigan already has 19.

Mrs. Beebe testified, however, that she plans to amend her proposal to move the State Department of Military Affairs under the jurisdiction of the executive office, thereby freeing another department spot.

"Young people today are threatened more by society than by any bomb," she said.

Not Cure-All

"There's no question the state has not faced up to the problems of young people," Mrs. Beebe testified. A department of youth affairs, she said, would be "responsible for preventing delinquency."

"It is not intended to be a cure-all or magic potion," she added.

Testimony revealed that exact cost of setting up a youth affairs department is unknown, although Mrs. Beebe suggested $750,000 or more for a department with regional offices.

Michigan might also lose up to $1 million in federal funds, said Rosemary Scott, chairman of the Governor's Commission on Juvenile Delinquency which advocates the youth affairs department.

Need Place To Go

The loss of federal funds could come, it was explained, because the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare expends money for juvenile programs through state departments of social services.

Mrs. Beebe said, however, that that question remains unresolved. A separate department would not necessarily mean the loss of federal funds, she said.

"There is an overwhelming need for an autonomous identifiable department that is visible and responsible," Miss Scott testified.

Calhoun County Probate Judge Mary Coleman told the committee that under present methods, "nobody knows where to look to place the responsibility."

U-M Coeds View Security After Latest Slaying

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Susan Schwartz is 22, pretty and a senior at the University of Michigan. She has accepted rides from strangers in the past, but never again.

"I'm a little frightened by the last week," Miss Schwartz stated in an interview about 12 hours after the mutilated body of a 20-year-old University of Michigan girl was found in a lover's lane spot near Ann Arbor.

"It's really scary to me," she continued, "but at the same time I don't think it would make me say I won't go out at night alone." But no more rides with strangers, said the coed from Erie, Pa.

Found By Surveyor

The nude body of Maralynn Skelton was found by a surveyor Tuesday. It was the fourth unsolved slaying in the Ann Arbor area in less than two years. Less than a week earlier the body of a 20-year-old University of Michigan coed was found in a cemetery about 10 miles from the secluded spot where Miss Skelton's body was found.

Maralynn was enjoying her youth. On the back of a recent high school photo which she gave to a friend, she wrote: "We've had a real groove this past year and will always."

Other coeds contacted admitted to at least uneasiness.

But Lisa Stephens, 20, a junior from Detroit, said she did not detect any great fear among coeds at the university.

"With the large number of students on campus you can't let a couple of incidents bother you," Miss Stephens said. "The campus is relatively safe and I don't fear being jumped on the streets. But hitchhiking is foolish."

Rapid River Coed

Margaret Soderberg, 20, a junior from Rapid River, Mich., said she knew a friend of one of the slain girls. She said she's afraid of being out later than 9:30 p.m. and said she always carries a sharp object with her.

"I don't appreciate people who try to pick me up," she said.

Carolyn Taylor, 21, a senior from Evanston, Ill., said her mother called her Tuesday after reading about the Skelton slaying. Despite her mother's concern, Miss Taylor said she is not very concerned about the slayings. "I feel pretty secure," she said adding that she would not accept rides from strangers.

Berrienne Matthews, 20, a junior from Kalamazoo, said that when she goes out she always wants someone to accompany her. She said the murders have "made me more aware of the danger of being farther away than a block or two from campus."

Deanna Datsko, 19, a sophomore from Ann Arbor said, "I don't know that we know enough about the incidents to form a conclusion. Sure, there's a lunatic somewhere, but it hasn't hit close enough to home."

Chamber Backs Parochial Act

LANSING — The Michigan State Chamber of Commerce has come out in support of the educial bill now being considered by the Michigan Legislature.

Educial — House Bill 2424 sponsored by Rep. J. Bob Traxler (D-Bay City) and 34 other House members—calls for state financial assistance for the education of non-public school children.

The State Chamber, which represents major corporations in Michigan and has a membership of 4,000 other businessmen throughout the state, said it "believes firmly that any review of the present educational program (in Michigan) and consequent costs must consider the entire educational system, including private schools."

"The State Chamber believes that the State of Michigan should explore the feasibility of contracting for secular educational services, materials and programs with private institutions, either profit or non-profit at rates established by the state and for services that can be controlled by the state consistent with the state's ability to pay for such services," the statement said.

The chamber said that its policy was developed before the introduction of the Traxler Bill and that it believes that "the contractual concept would permit improvement in the entire educational system (in Michigan) and believes that utilization of private facilities could result in better education at smaller costs."

Ask Removal Of Kazoo Fire Chief

KALAMAZOO (AP) — The removal of Chester Douglas, Kalamazoo fire chief, has been requested by the city's fire fighters. In a letter to the City Commission, the union representing the firemen claims that Douglas has been dishonest in public statements during negotiations.

Dr. Kaski Opens Veterinary Clinic

Dr. Marvin Kaski, a native of Crystal Falls, has opened Bay Veterinary Clinic on U. S. 2 and 41 next to the Delona Motel between Escanaba and Gladstone.

Dr. Kaski graduated from Michigan State University in 1959 and practiced veterinary medicine for six years before accepting employment with the State of Michigan and later the State of Wisconsin for two years.

He came to the Escanaba area from Green Bay. He is married and has five children.

The Dutch, who took possession of the island in 1598, named Mauritius in honor of Prince Maurice of Nassau.

Priests' Council To Attack Issues

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The National Federation of Priests' Councils (NFPC) wound up routine convention business speedily to move into open debate today on the Roman Catholic issues of contraception, celibacy and defuncting priests.

The Rev. Patrick O'Malley of Chicago, NFPC president, said there was no plan to bring up specific issues when the meeting was opened to the 250 delegates for resolutions on any subject.

But the delegation from Washington, D.C., composed of two priests whose cardinal ordered them out of their rectories last fall for saying Catholic spouses could follow their consciences in using contraceptives, intended to push for clear-cut federation statements on that moral question and others.

The Rev. Joseph O'Donoghue, backed by his colleague the Rev. John Corrigan, had complained when the three-day national convention began Monday that none of the "grave crises we face" in current church life was included on the convention agenda.

The federation, formed less than a year ago, has been generally moderate in its approach to Catholicism's internal turmoil.

The delegates Tuesday night went into separate geographic regional caucuses to talk over the positions they would take once free debate started.

Several resolutions prepared by NFPC committees in advance of the convention were defeated in voting at a session that lasted until late Tuesday.

One was a resolution calling for the Pope to name an American prelate, in place of one from Italy, as the apostolic delegate—or papal liaison man with the U.S. bishops—in Washington.

A resolution supporting the creation of civilian police review boards in U.S. cities was defeated on the grounds that an organization of priests should not get involved.

Crime Has Young Face In Escanaba

Delta Prosecutor John Beauchamp, Delta District Judge Dean Shipman and Detective John Robitaille of the Escanaba Police Department addressed the Escanaba Rotary Club at its luncheon meeting in the House of Ludington Tuesday on crime here.

Their verdict: Crime has a young face in Escanaba!

Most of the crimes, said Robitaille, are committed by youngsters 14 or 15 to 19 years of age. After 19 most of the offenders are repeaters.

Biggest provocation for juvenile crime, they said is beer.

Beer they said, isn't a bad thing in itself, but every week there's a hearing of youngsters charged with "minors in possession." The trouble, said Judge Shipman, comes when a carfull of teenagers runs out of beer at 3 o'clock in the morning and decides to kick in a beer warehouse door to get some more. That is serious, breaking and entering is a crime, not a misdemeanor, and it's a start on a criminal record.

Need Adult Aid

None of the officers of the law who addressed the Rotarians held forth much hope that there's going to be much remedy of the situation unless adults help officers identify the adults who are selling the beer to minors. Minors won't tell. Judge Shipman said he'd had only one minor in all the "beer in possession" cases he's heard tell him who furnished the beer.

Robitaille said that breaking and entering led crimes in Escanaba in 1968. Larceny was next, with even the girls in the act and with automobiles a common target, and with most car thieves juveniles. Arson, forgery and embezzlement were recorded. One young forger wrote $1,200 worth of checks on his grandmother's account, and then wrote out some more while out on probation.

Girl Car Thief

Sex offenses — mostly exposure — were quite frequent and so was drunk driving and drunkenness and disorderly conduct, usually fighting. In all, 244 adults from 18 to 65 were arrested in the city in the year, but juvenile arrests totaled 332 of whom 131 went to probate (juvenile) court.

Ten females were among the 34 charged with larceny and one girl, 13, stole 5 cars; one auto thief was only 10 years old and one forger only 9, "and he did a real good job;" (Last year there were 654,900 automobiles stolen in America at a cost of $130 million.)

Crime Progression

Police received 5,216 complaints in Escanaba in 1968 and the number is up this year. The common progression in juvenile crime here, said Robitaille is shoplifting, stealing of bicycles, stealing of gasoline, stealing of automobiles and then breaking and entering. "They come from every family background and home environment," he said.

Drug Problem

Robitaille said that Escanaba police know that a drug problem exists among young people in Escanaba. Information has been gathered but no arrests have been made yet. Robitaille said that at a recent school for police officers in Lansing and he was the only person among 51 in the class who had not made an arrest for narcotics offenses, so serious is the problem in the larger cities.

Prosecutor Beauchamp praised the Escanaba Police Department for its god work and assistance to his office. He has changed his opinion since he took office on Jan. 1 about his function, he said, and now believes that punishment is not always the answer for the person accused, nor for the community; that there are too many repeater cases and too few rehabilitations of the erring.

Seek Rehabilitation

In many cases he said the charge has been reduced to afford the first offender chance for counseling and to avoid a criminal record. Ninety per cent of crime problems in the 14-19 age group, he said, were due to drinking. "A little alcohol in the system and they get brave and break and enter to get some more beer," he said.

"We have got to have a way to rehabilitate these young people if we are to make progress. They are from permissive families that don't question them when they come home at 3 a.m. I don't think that Delta County is any worse than any other Michigan county and we're thankful that we don't have the problems that some other counties have. Marquette County for instance has a big narcotics problem."

Court Needs Aid

Judge Shipman said that the court does not stand with the prosecutor nor the police, but by itself, ruled by its own conscience and answerable only to its own superiors in the court system — "in my case, the circuit judge."

He said that there must be more adult citizen complaints if the problems of juvenile crime with which the authorities and courts now cope are to be solved. "Citizen support for the court is desperately needed," he said. "The court has no probation department and is going to be powerless until it gets one."

O'Hara Associate Of Honigman Firm

Atty. Michael D. O'Hara of Menominee, who failed of reelection as a justice of the Michigan Supreme Court in the Nov. 5 election, has become associated with the Detroit law firm of Honigman Miller Schwartz & Cohn, it announces, as of counsel, effective March 1.

The firm has its offices at 2290 First National Building, Detroit, Michigan 48226. Jason Honigman, head of the firm, was a Republican candidate for attorney general of Michigan several years ago.

CLASSIFIED ADS COST LITTLE BUT DO A BIG JOB

Business Prospects Good For Graduates

NEW YORK (AP) — Surveys and interviews show that job prospects in business for this year's bachelor degree candidates are more numerous and often more financially rewarding than ever before—if the draft doesn't come first.

The biggest salaries seem to be going to chemical engineering grads, followed closely by four other engineering groups: electrical mechanical, metallurgical and aeronautical. Salaries for accountants are rising fast.

The number of job offers for master's and doctoral candidates may be somewhat lower this year, although it also may be too early to detect a trend. Some master's candidates in business report $12,000-a-year offers.

Early Promotions

Not only are initial prospects good, but chances for relatively early promotion into managerial jobs is almost assured by some companies badly in need of young executives. Thirty-year-old vice presidents are common now.

The College Placement Council, Inc., of Bethlehem, Pa., notes a sharp increase in offers to bachelor degree candidates through mid-February, from 10,824 in 1968 to 12,248 this year. For those seeking or holding advanced degrees the story seems a bit different. CPC reports only 1,762 offers at the master's level compared with 1,780 a year ago and 2,577 two years ago.

For doctoral candidates the number of offers declined to 459 from 485 a year ago and 592 two years ago.

Egghead In
This decline is not easily interpreted, for the egghead is now well established in business. A survey made two years ago of 4,500 managers by Executive Register, a New York personnel company, concluded that one in four hold's a master's degree.

At the time of the survey, Shell Oil Co. had 680 Ph.D.s, and Scott Paper Co.'s management included 35 doctors and 178 masters, or double the number of six years earlier.

A survey just released by the Bureau of National Affairs, Inc., a private researcher and publisher of business and professional information based in Washington, D. C., shows salary offers 5 to 6 per cent higher than a year ago.

It lists these as typical of the money offers to bachelor degree candidates: science, $9,184, up $363 in one year; business, $8,212, up $516; and liberal arts, $7,778, up $401.

Demos Look For Place For LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — A delicate question of what do with former President Johnson, plus the reluctance of some big names to serve are among the headaches facing Democratic National Chairman Fred Harris in his efforts to form a party advisory council.

Hubert H. Humphrey has been offered the job as head of the council. But he wants to keep his options open for a political comeback and has told party leaders he would take the job only temporarily, if at all.

Senate Leader Mike Mansfield and other congressional leaders are reluctant to join hands with a group they feel may tread on their prerogatives in establishing a Democratic position in opposition to the Republican administration.

Mindful of the friction generated between a predecessor advisory council and the congressional leaders a decade ago, Mansfield said his present thinking in not to accept a place on the new group.

"I think I have a primary responsibility in the Senate," he said.

The Johnson problem arises because he would be serving in a group expected to produce policy statements in such volatile issues as the Vietnam war and the antimissile defense system.

So far Johnson has shown no interest in the policy council, ordered by the Democratic National Committee at its last session. But former associates do not expect Johnson's current disinterest in politics to last for long.

Vote Directly If 'Not' Removed

LANSING (AP) — A bill to eliminate one word in state election law, thereby allowing Michigan voters to cast ballots directly for president and vice president has been introduced in the House by Rep. Hal Ziegler, R-Jackson.

Removal of a single "not" in the law would make it read in part: "marking a cross in the circle... shall be deemed and taken as a direct vote for the candidates... for president and vice president."

In addition, presidential electors would be appointed by the Legislature, rather than being picked by political parties in fall conventions of each election year.

"I can't realistically conceive that my bill would go anywhere," Ziegler said. "I just want to get some debate going." He said he hoped the idea is taken up in Washington, but meanwhile he wants to see what the state might do.

Cavanagh Pleads For More Taxing Powers

LANSING (AP)—Warning that if Detroit dies, "everything dies," Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh pleaded Monday for increased taxing powers to help his city survive.

"A kind of 'we-they' attitude is suicidal," Cavanagh told the House Urban Affairs Committee. "It no more serves the welfare of suburbia than it does the welfare of Detroit."

"In short," he said, "Detroit is not an appendage which can be amputated without harming the rest of the body."

Grand Rapids Mayor Chris Sonneveldt also asked for increased taxing powers for his city, including a boost in the local income tax. "If this could be done it would be possible for a city government to raise the income tax and lower the property tax the same amount," Sonneveldt suggested.

Cavanagh said Detroit faces "financial disaster" this year—with a projected deficit of some $17 million, $7 in "mandatory increases in the budget," and some $11 million in "employee demands."

"Total disaster can be averted," he said. "If the Legislature chooses to help now, or more accurately if you will allow Detroit the means to help itself."

Cavanagh seeks legislation allowing the city to boost both resident and nonresident income tax by one half of one per cent, with funds earmarked for public safety — some 1,700 more police officers.

"Unless we can check the rising rate of crime and, as important, the tidal wave of fear that follows it, little else that we can do in Detroit will be of any consequence," he said.

"Fear of crime has outstripped the rate of crime," he added. Cavanagh gave short shrift to any thought of boosting only the city income tax.

"A part of the burden must and should be born by the commuter — who extracts his livelihood from the city... who bewails the crime problem even more passionately than the 24-hour resident of Detroit," he said.

"To grant anything less than this is not to help the city but to accelerate the flight of those who live and work in Detroit."

Weather Causes Lights To Blink

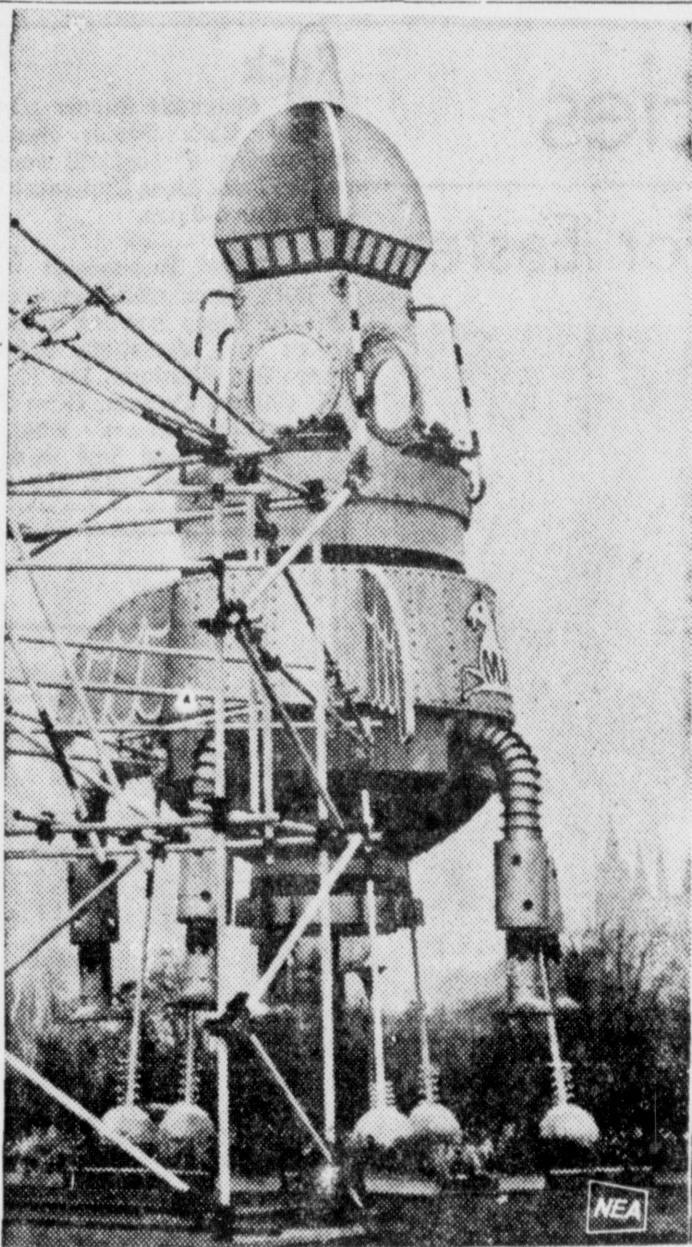

Blinking lights in the Escanaba area and also in rural areas north of the city have been caused by the weather, according to Gary Barton, manager for Upper Peninsula Power Co. at Escanaba said today.

Barton said a number of residents have called U. P. Power Co. and City of Escanaba offices questioning the blinking lights.

Last Thursday, he said, there was icing on a transmission line between Gwinn and Munising and Monday night it was wind which "slapped" conductors together on 69,000 volt transmission lines, causing brief outages and producing the "blinking" effect in area homes.

"There is no danger to a household," he emphasized.

The 39-mile-long island of Mauritius was discovered by the Portuguese in 1507.

IT'LL NEVER GET OFF THE GROUND. Made from cardboard and wood, this space vehicle stands on the concrete base of the former Stalin monument in Prague, Czechoslovakia. It will be seen in a new Czech film.

12-Year-Old Is Certified Flyer

NEWAYGO (AP) — Up, up and away has become a popular way to travel in recent years, but for a Newaygo youth, it is the only way to go.

Jim Rhodenbaugh, who is only 12, was recently awarded a flying certificate by the Air Safety Foundation in Washington, D.C., upon completion of an intensive, year-long flight training course.

The course is geared to enable a passenger in a plane to assume the controls, locate an airport and land the aircraft should a pilot become incapacitated.

But young Jim, who says he loves to fly, cannot legally solo for another four years. And he cannot obtain a pilot's license until he's 17.

The youth said he found the flight studies difficult. They included courses on communications, radio navigation, map reading and emergency procedures.

But Ray Corrigan, the youth's instructor, said Jim was an excellent pupil.

Harold Rhodenbaugh, meanwhile, indicated his son has done an excellent job. But he added wistfully, "I'm just a little jealous of his nice smooth landings."

Is the flying bug infectious? Jim says that his mother, Maxine, is now planning to begin flight instruction.

Escanaba Too Cooperative?

State And Federal Funds Escape City

By CLINT DUNATHAN
Can a non-cooperating community get state and federal funds easier than one that cooperates?

Escanaba city officials aren't sure, but they are beginning to think they are playing the game the wrong way, since the city's program of readiness to improve its municipal water and wastewater systems doesn't bring any cheers from Lansing or Washington.

Neither is it bringing any matching funds to finance anti-pollution projects.

There's a rather long story back of the frustrations at City Hall.

City Cooperated

For example, in September, 1967, anticipating the push toward anti-pollution goals and listening to the urging of state and federal agencies, the City Council employed consulting ready to move," said Harvey. "We are now learning that there is a change of heart in Lansing and instead of 25 per cent local cost, the formulas being developed place upon the locality something like 45 per cent cost."

Should City Comply?

With these changed cost figures in mind, Harvey said he is reordering re-examination of the water and wastewater projects to determine:

1—The cost to the community under the revised formulas.

2—What can be done now to correct present problems at much reduced financial obligation.

3—Whether "we should continue to comply voluntarily as we have been or whether we should wait for regulatory agencies and the courts to order us to do said work," said Harvey.

Consideration of the total cost is another factor in Escanaba's effort to get the projects off the ground as rapidly as possible, since construction costs are rising at an estimated 5 to 8 per cent annually.

So each passing year adds to the total cost and each year of delay brings more pollution to the body of water from which this and other communities take their supply.

Found Guilty Of Beating Girl

MUSKEGON (AP) — Thomas Sutherland, 25, of Muskegon, will be sentenced in late April in connection with the beating of a teen-age girl.

A Circuit Court jury of nine women and three men found Sutherland guilty of assault with intent to commit murder in the 1966 beating of a 14-year-old Fruitport Township girl. She was found unconscious in a desolate wooded area near Muskegon.

Cavanagh Pleads For More Taxing Powers

LANSING (AP)—Warning that if Detroit dies, "everything dies," Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh pleaded Monday for increased taxing powers to help his city survive.

"A kind of 'we-they' attitude is suicidal," Cavanagh told the House Urban Affairs Committee. "It no more serves the welfare of suburbia than it does the welfare of Detroit."

"In short," he said, "Detroit is not an appendage which can be amputated without harming the rest of the body."

Portuguese Egg Breads For Easter

Easter breakfast should be particularly pleasant—unhurried, gracious and containing at least one surprise food. These egg breads, traditionally served in Portugal on Easter morning, are perfect for the occasion.

PORTUGUESE EASTER BREADS

6½ to 7½ cups unsifted flour
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 packages active dry yeast
1 cup milk
¼ cup water
¼ cup (½ stick) margarine
3 eggs (at room temperature)
8 hard-cooked eggs

In a large bowl thoroughly mix 2 cups flour, sugar, salt and undissolved active dry yeast. Combine milk, water and margarine in saucepan. Heat until liquids are warm. Gradually add to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed. Add the 3 eggs and enough flour to make a thick batter. Beat at high speed 2 minutes. Stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. On lightly floured board knead until smooth and elastic, about 8-10 minutes. Let rise in a warm place until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Portuguese Easter egg breads.

Divide dough into 8 pieces. Take about one-quarter of each piece and set aside. Shape larger pieces into round balls. On greased baking sheets press large pieces of dough down into circles, ½-inch thick. Place a hard-cooked egg in center of each. Divide each of the remaining 8 pieces of dough in half. Shape each into a 6-inch rope. Using 2 ropes, cross in an "X" over each egg and seal ends underneath dough. Cover, let rise in warm place until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Bake in 350-degree oven for 20 to 25 minutes. Makes 8 individual breads.

Try Dried Beef For Quick Snack

Six ingredients make six sandwiches in a hurry! This one is different, too, because it uses dried beef from a jar or package with canned soup, cheese and buns, points out Reba Staggs, home economist with the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

Dried Beef-Cheese Toastwiches

1 jar or package (4 to 5 ounces) dried beef
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ clove garlic, minced
½ teaspoon pepper
¼ pound Cheddar cheese, grated
3 buns, split and toasted
Butter or margarine

Shred dried beef. Heat soup with garlic and add pepper, cheese and dried beef. Cook slowly until cheese is melted. Serve on toasted bun halves which have been spread with butter or margarine. 6 servings.

Men's Skirts Headline London Fashion Show

LONDON (AP) — Skirts for men. That's the latest fashion fantasy on show in London.

And when the boys want to slip into something comfortable, what better than harem trousers or a cosy jumpsuit?

These were the men's wear styles at a double show today. They came from designer Mr. Fish and completely stole the show from feminine fashions designed by Annacat.

Annacat had planned to top him with a number called "Bare Bottom," but when it came down to brass tacks, she lost her nerve and pulled the model out of the show.

That left Mr. Fish in control of the runway with such creations as "The Virgin Earl," described as "an embroidered white moire sleeveless skirted coat."

The model was the Earl of Litchfield. Other remarkable numbers were paraded by Julian Ormsby-Gore, 27-year-old son of Lord Harlech, the former British ambassador to Washington and a friend of President John F. Kennedy.

This morning's parade was the press preview of a charity show to be held Tuesday at the London Planetarium.

Loud orange and bright purple are Mr. Fish's favored tints for gents. He brings back wide, padded shoulders, above wasp waists and gathered jacket skirts or peplums. Nearly everything is ornamented with male jewelry—wide rhinestone belts, big military decoration-type lapel pins, or jeweled bands of embroidery.

One male model wore a snakeskin shorts suit with wide orange-jeweled belt. Another sported a champagne silk embroidered harem suit with a rhinestone belt.

Then there were "Mr. and Miss Fish" matching outfits of black tights with quarter black and white knit tabards, a male model in red silk stockings, another in an orange velvet knickerbocker suit embroidered in red, and another in a quilted, beaded, scalloped waistcoat with pink chiffon frilly shirt and tight white pants.

After that, what can you do for encores? Even Annacat's open-work, see-through white lace trouser suit with open-hanging top failed to titillate.

Ghettos Should Get 1st Priority: Mrs. Milliken

LANSING (AP)—"The shame of our ghettos should receive our first priority," Mrs. William Milliken, wife of the governor, told a Lansing meeting connected with the White House Conference on Conservation Tuesday.

"There can be no place in civilized cities where rats live side by side with people," she said. "How can we possibly measure the cost to a ghetto child who sits on tenement steps and sees only a little piece of sky through the buildings and plays on a landscape of asphalt?"

The governor's wife called for support of the Milliken proposal for use of the recreation bond issue be used in urban areas.

Mrs. Milliken noted that she comes from an area of the state "that prides itself as the heart of nature's playground."

"But even there," she said, "we are confronted with pollution and other problems plaguing our environment."

DAME MARGOT FONTEYN gives a sample of her art as a ballerina at London's Covent Garden where, tonight she will whirl on stage for a gala performance marking her 35 years with the British Royal Ballet. Miss Fonteyn, who on May 18 will celebrate her 50th birthday, seems ageless to her fans. (AP Wirephoto)

Rock 4-H Clubs Hold Spring Achievement

The Rock 4-H Clubs presented the 10th 4-H spring achievement program at the Rock School Friday evening, March 21. Christine Mankiewicz was the master of ceremonies. The history of the Rock Club was read by Carolyn and Annette Kulack. Tina Mankiewicz, Susie Koski and Patricia and Priscilla Waak.

A number was presented on horns by Susan Laitinen, Annette Kulack and Priscilla Waak, accompanied by Carolyn Kulack on the piano.

Models

Six first year Young Miss models were Marlene Leach, Carol Ontto, Renee Kivela, Kathy Brunette, Emily Koski and Cheryl Wilcox. Sherry Wadeen and Brenda Norden are second year members of the program. Senior Miss models were Carolyn Kulack, third year, and Annette Kulack, Patricia and Priscilla Waak and Susie Koski, fifth year.

Carolyn Kulack introduced Donald Brown, 4-H youth leader, who introduced Nancy Welund, delegate to Spain on the 4-H Caravan this summer. Carolyn presented Tina Mankiewicz, the club queen and she was crowned by Susie Koski, club president.

Talent Numbers

Seven talent numbers were presented. The top winners who will compete at the county talent show April 12 are Mark Wilcox, pantomime; and a musical dramatic reading, "Heritage of Liberty and Freedom," by Patricia and Priscilla Waak, Carolyn and Annette Kulack.

Other talent participants were Brenda Norden, Sherry Wadeen, Brenda Norden, Marlene Leach, Renee Kivela, Cheryl Wilcox, Emily Koski, Jeff Johnson and Marlene Leach.

PTA Council To Again Sponsor Marionettes

The April meeting of the Escanaba Area PTA Council will be held Monday, March 24, at the Soo Hill School.

The Council announced they will again sponsor the Nicola Marionettes. This year's performance will be "Jack and the Beanstalk" to be presented at the Junior High Auditorium May 3. There will be performances at 11:30 and 1:30. Tickets will be available through the area schools. Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Dean Shipman and Mrs. Ralph Anderson.

Mrs. John Anthony, Council president, called upon member units of the Council to send delegates to the annual Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Teachers convention to be held in Flint, April 21, 22 and 23. The meetings of the convention will be open to all members of the PTA following payment of a registration fee of $2 and the presentation of their 1968-69 PTA membership card.

Mrs. George Maniaci spoke to the council about retarded children and showed a very interesting film, "Selling a Guy Named Larry," finding the right job for the retarded person.

Church Finishing Job Corps Study

Trinity Episcopal Church will have its last in a series of Lenten Programs, Thursday, March 27, at 7:30 p. m. The object of study for five weeks has been the Job Corps, especially the Women's Training Center at Northern Michigan University. This week there will be no speaker. Instead the study group will continue the discussion which began last week concerning its own responsibility in response to what has taken place. The discussion so far has dealt primarily with local problems and needs, aiming towards possible contributions we can make towards their solutions. It is hoped that Thursday evening will see the formulation of a purpose and a course of action.

A portion of the evening has been set aside for those attending to write letters to Senators, Congressmen, and Legislators expressing feelings and opinions concerning Job Corps, either pro or con. It is also understood that anyone who wishes not to write will not be expected or pressured to do so.

For this concluding session all people who have attended earlier programs are encouraged to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Truck Damaged In Bluff Mishap

A Skelgas truck was damaged when it skidded through a guardrail and partially down the side of the Gladstone bluff Tuesday afternoon, Gladstone police reported today.

Officers said the truck wedged against a tree off M-35.

Driver of the truck, Peter J. Rabitoy, 616 N. 14th St., Gladstone, was not injured. The truck is owned by Gladstone Skelgas Service, 116 N. 9th St.

Briefly Told

Circle Meetings—The Afternoon Circle of the Evangelical Covenant Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Prins, 803 Dakota Avenue, at 2:30 p. m. on Thursday. Mrs. Earl Louis and Mrs. Edwin Johnson are in charge of the program. The Evening Circle will meet at 8 p. m. at the Church with Miss Inez Nyberg as hostess. Mrs. Marvin Sigurd is in charge of the program. Chapter 6 and 7 will be discussed.

Eastern Star Joins Crusade

Mrs. Harry Haymen, worthy matron of Minnecassa Chapter 96, Order of Eastern Star, today informed Jack Beck, president of the Delta County Cancer Society, that women of her chapter have agreed to again canvass Gladstone in the annual Cancer Drive.

Minnecassa Chapter conducted the drive in Gladstone last year, which was the most successful in history, according to past records.

"We are very optimistic about our Gladstone drive because of the ladies of the Eastern Star," said John LaBranche of Escanaba, crusade chairman. "They have done so well for us in the past that we are certain they will meet with success again this year."

Mrs. Nettie Lundmark, secretary of the Eastern Star, reported that between 20 and 30 women will be engaged in the campaign.

Kennedy Film May Be Shown

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A film of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's last speech acknowledging victory in the California Democratic presidential primary before a joyous crowd—may be shown to the jury trying Sirhan Bishara Sirhan for murder.

Kennedy had just finished the speech in the Ambassador Hotel, shouted "On to Chicago," and was moving to another room to meet with newsmen when he was mortally wounded by Sirhan early last June 5.

The state said it will try to introduce the 15-minute film as rebuttal to defense claims that Sirhan became enraged by Kennedy's advocacy of more arms for Israel.

Dr. Bernard L. Diamond, a psychiatrist scheduled to undergo cross-examination today, testified Sirhan told him under hypnosis that he hated the New York senator because he made a campaign promise to send U.S. jets to Israel.

"It would be important for the jury to see that Kennedy did nothing that night to rekindle the flame," said Lynn D. Compton, deputy district attorney. "It was an innocuous speech."

Grant B. Cooper, chief defense counsel, said he would object to having the film introduced.

Military Contract

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force has awarded a $5.2-million contract to Continental Aviation Corp. of Detroit.

Of the $5.2 million contract, the Air Force obligated $2 million for the purchase of 104 engines, which are to be manufactured at Continental's Toledo, Ohio, plant.

Some Schools Close:

Springtime Hit By Wintry Blast

Winds in gusts up to 35 miles an hour whirled a meager snowfall into drifts in many areas of the region Tuesday, created hazardous highway conditions, and caused the closing of some schools in the area.

Closed today were the schools at Trenary, Chatham, Rapid River and the Big Bay de Noc district.

Temperatures dipped into the low 20's last night while the strong wind made the chill factor even chillier and pushed pedestrians back into boots and winter clothing.

Conditions today were improved as snowplows worked through drifts, ice control measures were under way, and the force of the wind abated. Springtime's promised warmth, however, was still set back for several days, according to the weather forecast.

Ice conditions on Little Bay de Noc and Green Bay remained seemingly unchanged, with ice 15 to 20 inches thick and some leads of open water developing because of the wind-storm. Ice breaking operations in this area, however, are not to be undertaken before March 30, reports the U. S. Coast Guard.

The Weather Bureau further reports that Escanaba has 12 inches of harbor ice, Port Inland near Manistique 18, Sturgeon Bay 17, while Milwaukee

Jerry Lewis Gives Apology

NEW YORK (AP) — Comedian Jerry Lewis has "openly, publicly and humbly" apologized for having broadcast a questionable joke about Mississippi.

State officials, led by Gov. John Bell Williams, had demanded that the National Broadcasting Co. apologize for Lewis' comment made Monday night on the "Tonight" show.

Lewis, host for the show in the absence of Johnny Carson, told his audience Tuesday night: "Last night we did a joke which I suspect, in reflecting, wasn't terribly funny and we did offend some of our friends in Mississippi."

"I openly, publicly and humbly apologize. That certainly was not my intention ... to offend."

Lewis reportedly commented on the Monday night program that while flying to New York he had used the rest room over Mississippi, fulfilling a long-standing ambition.

Senator Blasts Oakland Film

LANSING (AP) — Sen. Robert Huber told colleagues Tuesday of a movie depicting "God as a bandaged North Vietnamese soldier" and blasted Oakland University for allowing such a film to be shown on campus.

"Since when is a public institution a citadel of blasphemy?" Huber asked.

He said the film, "Chafed Elbows," was featured last week in a two-day art festival at Oakland.

"There is a difference between art and smut," he said, "between Shakespeare and Andy Warhol."

Huber, R-Troy, chairman of the special Senate committee investigating campus disorder, criticized Oakland previously when a student stripped to read poetry.

"I hope Chancellor (Durward) Varner is cognizant of what's going on under his nose," Huber said. "I'm getting a little tired of telling him."

Huber said the "new left doesn't want to play to any set of rules." But when their rules are criticized, he said, they "call you 'racist,' 'pig,' 'fink,' 'dirty capitalist.'"

"I take exception," he said. "I think I have a right to protest."

"I think this should be brought to the attention of those who are paying the bills...paying the bills is doing your thing."

Appointment

LANSING (AP) — Gov. William Milliken announced today the appointment of Durward Varner, chancellor of Oakland University, as chairman of the Michigan State Council for the Arts.

Social Security Boost Studied

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration sources said today proposals to increase Social Security benefits are under active study and they hinted it might be possible to boost benefits without raising payroll taxes.

These sources emphasized that a wide range of suggestions for higher Social Security benefits were being considered but that no final decision had been made on a package to be presented to Congress.

At this point, they said, there was no guarantee President Nixon would act this year to seek higher benefit payments, although such a move is widely expected.

Former Highway Man Is Indicted

LANSING (AP) — A former employee of the State Highway Department was indicted today by the state's one-man grand juror investigating alleged irregularities in the department.

The ex-employee, John E. Miller, was charged by Marvin Salmon, Ingham County circuit judge, who is acting as a grand juror.

The charges include accepting a promise to bribe and accepting bribes in July 1964, and April and September 1966.

Miller was arraigned today on a warrant for perjury, Salmon said, adding: "The warrant speaks for itself."

The judge also said Miller was accused of "deceiving his employer" on March 2, 1963.

Salmon said the indictment meets the statute of limitations on some counts.

Withdrawal Two Years Off, Say Staff Officers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army staff officers estimate it may take as long as two years for a complete withdrawal of all U.S. soldiers and equipment from Vietnam when the order finally comes to pull out of the war zone.

Although no decision has been reached on a timetable the Army is working on plans now to avoid the waste and confusion that accompanied the first pull-back of U.S. troops from battle zones in past wars.

The staff officers made the time estimate after Secretary of the Army Stanley R. Resor told the Senate Armed Services Committee Tuesday that "a deliberate rather than a hasty timetable" is the best way to avoid the difficulties that followed World War II and Korea.

"We are therefore planning now, in a much more detailed and orderly manner than at any time previously for actions to be taken when hostilities decrease to a level at which the South Vietnamese no longer require the assistance of our own combat troops," Resor said.

The planning involves not only the removal of the 360,000 Army troops and billions of dollars worth of arms and equipment, but also their repositioning in the United States and elsewhere "to meet worldwide commitments," as Resor phrased it.

The Army staff also must take into account the overall re-

Safeguard May Speed Up Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon told a highly critical Senate subcommittee today the Safeguard antimissile system would provide incentives for the Soviet Union to negotiate nuclear arms limitations.

David R. Packard, deputy secretary of defense, thus went to the heart of the disarmament subcommittee's argument that the $7 billion missile defense plan would stimulate a nuclear arms race.

Noting the Safeguard's mission is to protect the U.S. nuclear capability, Packard said it would deter a Soviet attack by guaranteeing "an unacceptably high risk of devastating retaliation."

"The Safeguard deployment, therefore, shows the Soviet Union that we are not planning to attack them and that they can reasonably negotiate arms control agreements that protect defense while giving up offensive, first strike use of long range nuclear weapons," he contended.

"Safeguard gives the Soviets another incentive to negotiate: It shows them that any effort on their part to achieve a successful first strike is fruitless," he added.

The Safeguard system calls for deployment of Sprint and Spartan interceptor missiles at 12 sites to protect the nation's missile and bomber deterrent force.

Death Claims Max Eastman

NEW YORK (AP) — Max Eastman, 80, a leading radical and intellectual during the years before World War I, a poet, editor and an authority on Bolshevism, died Tuesday night in Barbados, the New York Times reported today.

He was for years embroiled in political and literary controversy, first as a radical, next as a disillusioned leftist and finally as a conservative.

Eastman was indicted under the Sedition Act in 1918 as editor of The Masses, a magazine that campaigned against the draft and American participation in the European conflict. Two trials followed but the juries disagreed in both cases and the indictments were dropped.

Among his books were "Marx and Lenin," "Stalin's Russia and the Crisis in Socialism," "The Enjoyment of Poetry," five volumes of poetry and two autobiographies, "Enjoyment of Living" and "Love and Revolution," which were noted for their frankness about his numerous romantic entanglements.

The Times said Eastman died at St. Joseph's Hospital in Bridgetown, Barbados, after suffering a massive stroke. His third wife, the former Yvette Szekely, was with him.

Troy Principal Looking For Job

TROY (AP) — Troy High School Principal Clyde D. Peterson said today he's looking for a new job.

Peterson said he wants to leave because the city's school board Tuesday night reversed its decision of a week ago to return to traditional scheduling, as Peterson had recommended.

The board had decided last week to abandon the controversial flexible modular class scheduling under which students have shorter class sessions and choice of how to use unscheduled time.

The Tuesday night board meeting was the second five-hour session at which the plan had been discussed. More than 600 persons attended the meeting in the high school gym.

Two Hospitalized After Accident

Two of eight persons injured in Delta County traffic accidents on slippery highways Tuesday remained in St. Francis Hospital this morning.

Edward Tillary, 61, of Memphis, Tenn., driver of a car which ran off U. S. 2 and 41 west of Escanaba and struck a tree in Memory Lane, and his wife, Macy, 70, both were reported in good condition. Charles Duiggle, 55, Linden, Ala., also a passenger in the car, suffered minor injuries and was not hospitalized.

State Police said the Tillary car struck a patch of ice and spun off the highway about eight tenths of a mile west of the Escanaba city limits.

Five other persons were injured in a two-car accident about 2:20 p. m. on County Rd. 426 in Cornell Township, State Police reported.

Deborah Scheuren, 17, and Duane Scheuren, 16, both of Cornell, remained in St. Francis Hospital over night but both were discharged this morning.

Officers said the Scheurens were passengers in a car driven by Irma Woodard, 17, Rte. 1, Cornell, which struck the rear of another car which was stalled in a snowdrift. Dorothy Meyers, 58, Rte. 1, Cornell, who was in the stranded car, Miss Woodard and Michael Thompson, a passenger in her car, all suffered minor injuries. Thompson was treated at St. Francis Hospital and released.

Two other accidents, neither involving injury, also were investigated Tuesday by State Police.

Officers said a car driven by Laura Lancour, 33, Rte. 1, Gladstone, struck a car owned by David Erickson, 1414 1st Ave. S., Escanaba, on County Rd. 416 near the Flat Rock School about 11:15 a. m. Officers said Erickson's car was stuck in a snowdrift when hit by the Lancour vehicle. Visibility in the area at the time was near zero, troopers said.

Ronald Towns, 19, Cliff St., Gladstone, was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law about another accident on U. S. 2 near County Rd. 426 about 9:45 a. m.

Troopers said Towns and a car driven by Jacqueline Zerk, 37, Fayette, both pulled out to pass a snowplow on the highway and sideswiped.

Stocks Advance Early Today

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued to advance early today in fairly active trading.

The Dow Jones industrial average, up from the start, was ahead 2.49 points at 11 a.m. at 919.57.

Gains led losses by nearly 200 issues.

Among active stocks, Pacific Petroleum, Standard Oil (Indiana), Sperry Rand, and Mobil Oil each gained a point or more.

Loew's Theatres, Great Western Financial, Natoms, and Kentucky Fried Chicken, gained fractions.

Fractional gains and losses dotted the list.

Early blocks included: Pacific Petroleum, up 1/4 at 31 1/2 on 18,500 shares; Mohasco, unchanged at 37 3/4 on 17,100 shares; and Great Western Financial, up 1/2 at 27 3/4 on 15,000 shares.

Steels and motors were higher. Rubber issues were higher. Electronics generally were lower. Utilities were up.

All Grand Rapids Schools Closed

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The Grand Rapids Board of Education, forced to close all schools today because of the continued teacher walkout, was expected to seek an injunction to send the 1,600 instructors back into the classrooms.

The hearing was to be held by Circuit Judge Stuart Hoffus.

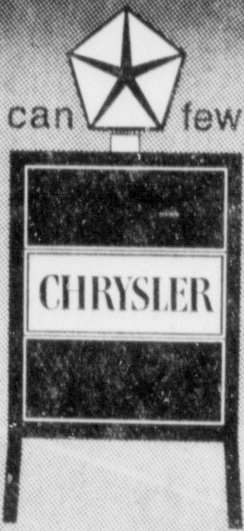

Monday Judge Hoffus issued a restraining order halting the Grand Rapids Education Association from conducting teacher meetings during normal school hours.

Some Schools Close:

Springtime Hit By Wintry Blast

Winds in gusts up to 35 miles an hour whirled a meager snowfall into drifts in many areas of the region Tuesday, created hazardous highway conditions, and caused the closing of some schools in the area.

Closed today were the schools at Trenary, Chatham, Rapid River and the Big Bay de Noc district.

Temperatures dipped into the low 20's last night while the strong wind made the chill factor even chillier and pushed pedestrians back into boots and winter clothing.

Conditions today were improved as snowplows worked through drifts, ice control measures were under way, and the force of the wind abated. Springtime's promised warmth, however, was still set back for several days, according to the weather forecast.

Ice conditions on Little Bay de Noc and Green Bay remained seemingly unchanged, with ice 15 to 20 inches thick and some leads of open water developing because of the windstorm. Ice breaking operations in this area, however, are not to be undertaken before March 30, reports the U. S. Coast Guard.

The Weather Bureau further reports that Escanaba has 12 inches of harbor ice. Port Inland near Manistique 18, Sturgeon Bay 17, while Milwaukee and ports farther south on Lake Michigan have none.

The Straits of Mackinac was opened by the passage of the freighter S. T. Crapo, assisted by the Coast Guard cutter Mackinaw. But there is heavily windrowed ice over the west end of the Straits.

The Soo Locks are scheduled to open April 1 and the St. Lawrence Seaway April 7.

Jerry Lewis Gives Apology

NEW YORK (AP) — Comedian Jerry Lewis has "openly, publicly and humbly" apologized for having broadcast a questionable joke about Mississippi.

State officials, led by Gov. John Bell Williams, had demanded that the National Broadcasting Co. apologize for Lewis' comment made Monday night on the "Tonight" show.

Lewis, host for the show in the absence of Johnny Carson, told his audience Tuesday night: "Last night we did a joke which I suspect, in reflecting, wasn't terribly funny and we did offend some of our friends in Mississippi."

"I openly, publicly and humbly apologize. That certainly was not my intention . . . to offend."

Lewis reportedly commented on the Monday night program that while flying to New York he had used the rest room over Mississippi, fulfilling a long-standing ambition.

Harold Sponberg Named Chairman

LANSING (AP) — Eastern Michigan University President Harold Sponberg has been named chairman of the Michigan Week speakers bureau committee.

Sponberg and program coordinator Gary Evans will maintain a list of speakers available for any event during Michigan Week, May 17-24. Also named to Michigan Week positions were Milo Undershill, grand master of Michigan Masons, chairman of the fraternal relations committee, and James Gooch of Marquette, deputy chairman of the Upper Peninsula.

Huber, R-Troy, chairman of the special Senate committee investigating campus disorder, criticized Oakland previously when a student stripped to read poetry.

"I hope Chancellor (Durward) Varner is cognizant of what's going on under his nose," Huber said. "I'm getting a little tired of telling him."

Huber said the "new left doesn't want to play to any set of rules." But when their rules are criticized, he said, they "call you racist," "pig," "fink," "dirty capitalist."

"I take exception," he said. "I think I have a right to protest."

"I think this should be brought to the attention of those who are paying the bills . . . paying the bills is doing your thing."

Appointment

LANSING (AP) — Gov. William Milliken announced today the appointment of Durward Varner, chancellor of Oakland University, as chairman of the Michigan State Council for the Arts.

The Army now stands at about 1.5 million men, some 500,000 more than when the Vietnam war buildup started in the summer of 1965.

Peterson said he wants to leave because the city's school board Tuesday night reversed its decision of a week ago to return to traditional scheduling, as Peterson had recommended.

The board had decided last week to abandon the controversial flexible modular class scheduling under which students have shorter class sessions and choice of how to use unscheduled time.

The Tuesday night board meeting was the second five-hour session at which the plan had been discussed. More than 600 persons attended the meeting in the high school gym.

Two Hospitalized After Accident

Two of eight persons injured in Delta County traffic accidents on slippery highways Tuesday remained in St. Francis Hospital this morning.

Edward Tillary, 61, of Memphis, Tenn., driver of a car which ran off U. S. 2 and 41 west of Escanaba and struck a tree in Memory Lane, and his wife, Macy, 70, both were reported in good condition. Charles Duiggle, 55, Linden, Ala., also a passenger in the car, suffered minor injuries and was not hospitalized.

State Police said the Tillary car struck a patch of ice and spun off the highway about eight tenths of a mile west of the Escanaba city limits.

Five other persons were injured in a two-car accident about 2:20 p. m. on County Rd. 426 in Cornell Township, State Police reported.

Officers said a car driven by Laura Lancoor, 33, Rte. 1, Gladstone, struck a car owned by David Erickson, 1414 1st Ave. S., Escanaba, on County Rd. 416 near the Flat Rock School about 11:15 a. m. Officers said Erickson's car was stuck in a snowdrift when hit by the Lancoor vehicle. Visibility in the area at the time was near zero, troopers said.

Ronald Towns, 19, Cliff St., Gladstone, was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law about another accident on U. S. 2 near County Rd. 426 about 9:45 a. m.

Troopers said Towns and a car driven by Jacqueline Zehren, 37, Fayette, both pulled out to pass a snowplow on the highway and sideswiped.

Gains led losses by nearly 200 issues.

Among active stocks, Pacific Petroleum, Standard Oil (Indiana), Sperry Rand, and Mobil Oil each gained a point or more.

Loew's Theatres, Great Western Financial, Natomas, and Kentucky Fried Chicken, gained fractions.

Fractional gains and losses dotted the list.

Early losses included: Pacific Petroleum, up 1/4 at 31 1/2 on 18,500 shares; Moineau, unchanged at 37 1/2 on 17,100 shares; and Great Western Financial, up 1/2 at 27 1/2 on 15,000 shares.

Steels and motors were higher. Rubber issues were lower. Utilities were up.

Deborah Scheuren, 17, and Duane Scheuren, 16, both of Cornell, remained in St. Francis Hospital over night but both were discharged this morning.

Officers said the Scheurens were passengers in a car driven by Irma Woodward, 17, Rte. 1, Cornell, which struck the rear of another car which was stalled in a snowdrift. Dorothy Meyers, 58, Rte. 1, Cornell, who was in the stranded car, Miss Woodward and Michael Thompson, a passenger in her car, all suffered minor injuries.

Thompson was treated at St. Francis Hospital and released.

Two other accidents, neither involving injury, also were investigated Tuesday by State Police.

Officers said a car driven by Laura Lancoor, 33, Rte. 1, Gladstone, struck a car owned by David Erickson, 1414 1st Ave. S., Escanaba, on County Rd. 416 near the Flat Rock School about 11:15 a. m. Officers said Erickson's car was stuck in a snowdrift when hit by the Lancoor vehicle. Visibility in the area at the time was near zero, troopers said.

Ronald Towns, 19, Cliff St., Gladstone, was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law about another accident on U. S. 2 near County Rd. 426 about 9:45 a. m.

Troopers said Towns and a car driven by Jacqueline Zehren, 37, Fayette, both pulled out to pass a snowplow on the highway and sideswiped.

Steels and motors were higher. Rubber issues were lower. Utilities were up.

All Grand Rapids Schools Closed

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The Grand Rapids Board of Education, forced to close all schools today because of the continued teacher walkout, was expected to seek an injunction to send the 1,600 instructors back into the classrooms.

The hearing was to be held by Circuit Judge Stuart Hoffius.

Monday Judge Hoffius issued a restraining order halting the Grand Rapids Education Association from conducting teacher meetings during normal school hours.

we care

what's in a name?

Our full name is
"The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company."
But, to most, we're "A&P" for short.
And some friends like to call us "The Tea Company."
Why? Well, in 1859, when A&P began, our first product was tea.
We bought full shiploads from the Orient and sold it at great savings to the public.
You learn a lot about tea in more than 300 years.
Today, you can savor the results of all that experience
by tasting one of A&P's fine tea products:
Our Own Tea Bags, for example.
Each bag contains up to 15 of the world's finest teas, from as many as 5 different countries.
It can take that many to develop our distinct blend.
So now you know why, by some, we're called "The Tea Company."
If you'd like to know why we're called "Great"

Four Quintets Post Victories In Cage Event

HERMANVILLE — Four teams moved into the quarter-final round of the 31st Annual Upper Michigan and North-eastern Wisconsin Gold Medal Amateur basketball tourney by posting victories in the second round of play last night.

Iron Mountain White Star eliminated the Escanaba Merchants, 69-63, behind the scoring of Bob Davidson and Rick Lindholm who tossed in 26 and 24 points respectively. Former high school stars Terry Dufour of Holy Name and John Moberg of Escanaba led the Merchants in the scoring column with 18 and 14 points respectively.

Hermansville Stihl Saws notched its second straight victory in the second game by downing Florence Haberkorn, 74-37. Paul Miller led the Stihl Saws with 24 points while Bernie Larson tossed in 15 and Bob Fitzgibbon chipped in with 14. Butch White paced the Florence quint with 16 points.

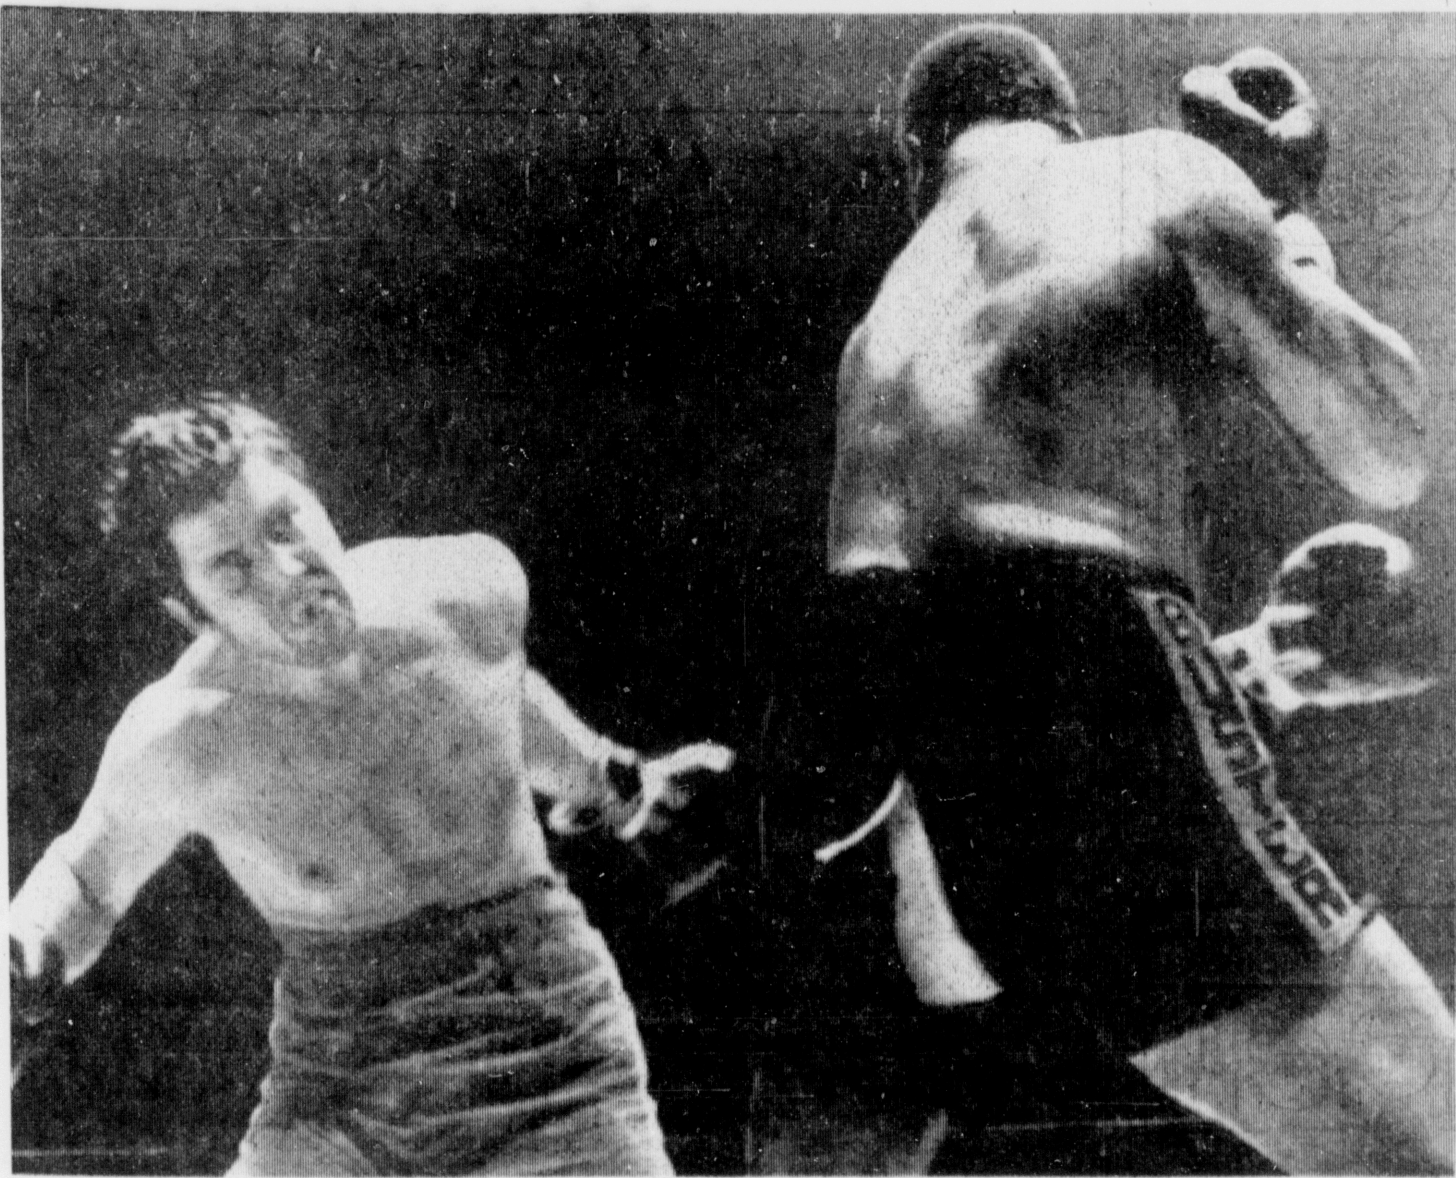

Hermansville Wildwood went down to defeat in the third contest of the evening to Stambaugh Sach's Bar, 65-55, behind 23 points by former West Iron County High School star Brian Greenlund. Dave Carle chipped in with 15 points for the winners while Jon Whitens led Hermansville with 26.

Defending Class B champion Norway Louie's Bar used a balanced scoring attack to score an easy 61-35 victory over Trenary Herb's Bar in the nightcap. Len Trudeau paced Louie's with 16 points while Jim LaPine and John Nylund added 14 and 13 points each to the winning total. Dale Pasanen was the only Trenary player in double figures with 10 points.

Games tonight will pit Iron Mountain Edward's Chevrolet against the Stephenson Strollers in the opener at 6:30, the Crystal Falls McNeil Oilers against Escanaba Tom's Foodland at 7:45; Champion Koski Corners against the Channing Cuculi Bar at 9 and Hermansville Joe's Bar against Marinette Marine in the nightcap at 10:15.

Banquet Tickets

Tickets for the annual Holy Name Booster Club All Sports Banquet to be held Sunday evening at 6:30 in the Multi-Purpose Room of the high school are on sale every day at the business office of the school from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Braves' Tillman Decides To Catch In 1969 Season

By The Associated Press

For a short time this week, General Manager Paul Richards of Atlanta might have been considering a comeback as a player after he had traded the Braves into an acute catcher shortage with the season opener only two weeks away.

Richards looked like the only man in the Braves' spring training camp with major league experience behind the plate—in the 1940s—following the departure of Joe Tootie and the rumored retirement of Bob Tillman.

But Richards found himself out of the competition today and back in the front office when Tillman decided to return and Richards acquired journeyman receiver Dave Adlesh from the St. Louis Cardinals for utility infielder Bob Johnson.

Until, then, the only catchers on duty in the Braves camp were Walt Hrinak and Bob Didier, both without major league experience, and Hrinak out with an injury.

Tillman, who had been excused from spring training for 13 days for personal reasons, now looks like the starting catcher for Atlanta, despite a mediocre career. Adlesh will be sent to the minors.

While no other team found itself caught that short, several were mulling over the loss of key players to injury.

Roberto Clemente, Pittsburgh's four-time National League batting champion, was the most important, leaving the Pirates in a worried state after he flew to his Puerto Rico home Tuesday for treatment of an ailment left shoulder that bothered him much of last season.

Clemente injured the shoulder about two weeks ago diving for a fly ball, and has not seen action since.

The San Francisco Giants lost slugging left fielder Jim Hart for at least five days when he stumbled chasing a foul fly in the Giants' 12-3 victory over Oakland, injuring a groin muscle that hampered him in 1968. Willie McCovey drove in four runs, two with a homer, in the game.

Cleveland lost catcher Duke

Sims for three to four weeks as he dislocated a ring finger on his right hand when hit by a foul tip in Cleveland's 6-5 triumph over Seattle on Tony Horton's ninth-inning homer.

Tom McCrew, Chicago White Sox first baseman, will be out for 10 to 12 weeks after undergoing knee surgery.

In other moves, Montreal acquired rookie first baseman Don Pepper from Detroit for cash, and several former major leaguers were sent to the minors—Bill Stafford of Seattle and Larry Sherry and Luis Alcaraz of Kansas City.

On the field, home runs carried the day as Baltimore bombed Washington 8-2, Cincinnati routed Detroit 16-1, Kansas City blanked Boston 4-0, St. Louis outlasted Minnesota 10-5, Houston tripped Atlanta 3-1, the Chicago Cubs trimmed San Diego 5-3 and Los Angeles' A team dropped Pittsburgh 10-4.

Boog Powell drove in four runs with a homer and two singles for Baltimore and Tony Perez slammed two homers and two doubles for Cincinnati. Joe Foy and Jerry Adair turned on their former Boston mates, Foy with a two-run homer and Adair with a run-scoring double.

Dal Maxvill and Phil Gagliano broke a tie with successive homers for St. Louis, offsetting a three-run shot by Tony Olivo of the Twins. Jim Wynn's two-run blast won for Houston and homers by Ron Santo and Don Young carried the Cubs by San Diego.

In other games, Montreal beat Don Drysdale and the Los Angeles B team 6-3 and California clubbed Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League 12-2. The Chicago White Sox and New York Yankees were rained out.

Barnhart Hits 706 In League

Bowlers in the Tuesday night Classic League at the Bowl-A-Rama Lanes will never be accused of not being able to hit the pocket after last night's performance.

Barney Barnhart, bowling for Clairmont's, turned in a 706 series to become the fifth Escanaba bowler to hit the 700 mark this season while Clarence Konas just missed the magic mark with a 698 series. Barnhart's games were 254, 242 and 210. Konas turned in scores of 249, 214 and 235.

Other bowlers getting 700 series this season are Lou Parlato, Dave Friets, Billy (Jon) Schinzel and Ernie Vanlerberghe.

The Clairmont's team also broke the record for the highest total at the Bowl-A-Rama. In addition to Barnhart's 706, John Lueneberg came through with a 667, Ernie Vanlerberghe 620, Walt Kulik 555 and Chet Badach 564 for a 3112 team total. The three games were 1088, 1021 and 1003.

The old record of 3031 was set earlier this season by the Sandberg's Bar team.

The team which Clairmont's was bowling against, Carl Sawyer's, also did pretty well for themselves. They rolled games of 948, 971 and 927 for a 2846 total. Chuck Crago paced Carl Sawyer's with a 648 and Dr. Stanchina had a 614.

Bob Corriveau of the Blatz team topped all bowlers for the high individual game with a 265.

Downstate Prep Cagers Dominate Class C Team

DETROIT (AP)—The 10 players chosen to the 1969 Class C high school All-State basketball team not only achieved personal heights this season, they also led their nine teams to a phenomenal composite record of 168-27.

Top vote-getter was Orchard Lake St. Mary's 6-foot-2 scoring machine, Tim Megge. Named with him were Dave Adamczak of Manistee Catholic Central, Greg Williams of Detroit St. Martin DePorres, Delbert Gregory of Dundee and Ray Bowerman of Eau Claire. Also chosen were Bruce Coffelt of Brooklyn Columbia Central, Ric Lawler and John Couture of Saginaw St. Stephen, Tim Cloud of Bangor, and Mike Corcoran of Grosse Pointe St. Paul.

Megge, a 6-2 senior, averaged 25.4 points a game, including a school record of 56 points in one game, preceded by a 51-point game. In 81 games during his four-year varsity career, Megge scored 1,612 points.

Manistee Catholic's Dave Adamczak scored more than 500 points for a 27.5 average as the team romped to a 20-3 record. He led the team in rebounds with a 14.7 average and became Manistee County's all-time scoring leader by pumping in 1,193 points.

Greg Williams is the slow, lumbering type ballplayer. But the way he scores he more than makes up for his deficiencies. Williams, a 6-5 senior, led DePorres to a 21-2 record and a No. 1 rating in the AP's final poll. He averaged 26.8 points a game and 21 rebounds and most of his field goals were scored on 10-footers.

Although only 6-2, senior Delbert Gregory rebounds like a player 6-5 or 6-6. He averaged 22.4 rebounds a game and 22 points.

Tallest player on the All-State team is 6-8 Eau Claire junior Ray Bowerman. He averaged 19 points and 17 rebounds a game and scored more than 30 three times, including a school record of 46 against a good Benton Harbor St. John team.

Three-year varsity starter Bruce Coffelt paced Columbia Central to a 17-3 record as the 6-1 senior scored 378 points for an 18-point average. He is a good shooter, passer and rebounder and steals the ball often.

Tim Cloud scored in double figures 41 times out of 43 varsity games. The 6-4 junior averaged 22 points this season as Bangor ran up a 17-4 record. Cloud sank 55 per cent of his shots from the floor and 65 per cent of his free throws and blocked 50 shots.

Lawler and Couture were the key men in St. Stephen's rise to the Titans' first state championship. Lawler, a 6-2 senior, paced St. Stephen's balanced attack with a 25-point average. Teammate Couture finished the season with a 19.5-point average as St. Stephen became the only Class C team in the state to finish with a perfect record 24-0.

By basketball standards Mike Corcoran would be classified as a dwarf. He's only 5-9, 150 pounds. But the 17-year-old senior's driving and playmaking ability led St. Paul to the finals of the state tourney and the Lakers finished with a 20-2 mark. Although he averaged only 14 points a game he seldom missed a free throw and hit better than 80 per cent from the foul line.

J.C. Penney Co. Transfers Moir

Denton Moir, local J. C. Penney Co. manager in Manistique for the past four years and current president of Top O' Lake Chamber of Commerce, has been transferred to the Olney, Ill. company store. Moir is to report in Olney on Friday.

A J. C. Penney Co. employee for 11 years, Moir came to the Manistique store from Green Bay where he was sales and merchandising manager. He and his wife Lou made their home on West Shore Drive with their three children, Lora Lee, Steven and Marcus. Mrs. Moir and children will remain in Manistique until suitable housing can be found in Olney.

Moir was honored by the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday at a social hour at the Fireside from 5 to 7 p. m.

Sister Margot Is Choral Director

A former Manistique girl, now a Franciscan nun in Rhinelander, is verse choral director of a pageant which will be presented in Green Bay on April 25 at the Wisconsin State convention of American Association of University Women.

Sister Margot, the former Paulette LeBrasseur, daughter of the Earl LeBrasseur, 318 Range St., is in charge of the verse chorus for "The Christmas Haiku" which will be seen at the Northland Hotel in Green Bay.

The dramatic sketch was originally presented in Rhinelander and has been entered in the annual writing contest of the AAUW.

Social

Study Club

Mrs. George Wood reviewed "The Arms of Krupp" by William Manchester for the Study Club when they met Monday at the home of Mrs. John Moffat, 235 Range St. Mrs. Paul Larson was assisting hostess.

Guests were Miss Helen Jean Voisine and Mrs. Hudson Johnson.

Mrs. Lee Pappas will present the review on April 21 when the group meets at the home of Mrs. Carl Carlson, 222 Range St., with Mrs. John Kelly assisting hostess.

MHS Hosting Forensic Meet

Manistique High School will host the District Forensic Festival on Friday and will have 15 local students entered in competition. Competing schools include Engadine, Munising, Newberry, Sault Ste. Marie, and Rudyard.

The 15 local students and their categories of competition include Brenda Webber, Becky Rodgers and Patty Johnson, dramatic monologue; Mary Beth Waters and Phyllis Zook, dramatic dialogue; Kathy Main, Judy Sheppard and Karen Vaughan, interpretive story telling.

Cindy Orlich, lyric poetry; Farral Goliat, extempore speaking; Pete Cockram, Merry Jo DeSautel, Mary Uerling, Arlene Jetty and Dave Rood, multiple reading group.

Mrs. John LaPointe, forensic director, said that 35 local students entered the local competition. Judges of the local contest, held last week, included Mrs. Lee Pappas, Mrs. Dorothy Sawyer, Pat Hoeffler and Jeffrey Murdock.

Students who survive the District Competition will advance to the Regional Forensic Festival.

Friday's District Festival will begin at 12 noon in the high school auditorium and will reconvene after a dinner hour at the new Lakeside School. Students will participate in the following categories: interpretive story telling, dramatic monologue, dramatic dialogue, declamation, radio news broadcasting, lyric poetry, extempore speaking, original oratory, humorous interpretative reading, and multiple reading.

Jack Romstad, speech coordinator at Bay de Noc Community College in Escanaba, will act as critic judge. Mrs. LaPointe is general director of the Festival.

J.C. Penney Co. Transfers Moir

Denton Moir, local J. C. Penney Co. manager in Manistique for the past four years and current president of Top O' Lake Chamber of Commerce, has been transferred to the Olney, Ill. company store. Moir is to report in Olney on Friday.

A J. C. Penney Co. employee for 11 years, Moir came to the Manistique store from Green Bay where he was sales and merchandising manager. He and his wife Lou made their home on West Shore Drive with their three children, Lora Lee, Steven and Marcus. Mrs. Moir and children will remain in Manistique until suitable housing can be found in Olney.

Moir was honored by the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday at a social hour at the Fireside from 5 to 7 p. m.

William H. Griffith is the new Penney Co. store manager. Griffith comes to Manistique from Oshkosh where he was sales and merchandising manager. He has been with Penney's for ten and one-half years and has worked in company stores in Springfield, Ill., West Bend, Wis., and Austin, Minn.

Griffith is a native of Sparta, Wis., and he and his wife Myrthys are the parents of two children, Kelly Ann, 7, and Libby Theo, 4 years old.

Sister Margot Is Choral Director

A former Manistique girl, now a Franciscan nun in Rhinelander, is verse choral director of a pageant which will be presented in Green Bay on April 25 at the Wisconsin State convention of American Association of University Women.

Sister Margot, the former Paulette LeBrasseur, daughter of the Earl LeBrasseur's, 318 Range St., is in charge of the verse chorus for "The Christmas Haiku" which will be seen at the Northland Hotel in Green Bay.

The dramatic sketch was originally presented in Rhinelander and has been entered in the annual writing contest of the AAUW.

Nurse Speaker At Med Careers Club

MHS Hosting Forensic Meet

Manistique High School will host the District Forensic Festival on Friday and will have 15 local students entered in competition. Competing schools include Engadine, Munising, Newberry, Sault Ste. Marie, and Rudyard.

The 15 local students and their categories of competition include Brenda Webber, Becky Rodgers and Patty Johnson, dramatic monologue; Mary Beth Waters and Phyllis Zook, dramatic dialogue; Kathy Main, Judy Sheppard and Karen Vaughan, interpretive story telling.

Cindy Orlich, lyric poetry; Farrah Glat, extempore speaking; Pete Cockram, Merry Jo DeSautel, Mary Uerling, Arlene Jetty and Dave Rood, multiple reading group.

Mrs. John LaPointe, forensic director, said that 35 local students entered the local competition. Judges of the local contest, held last week, included Mrs. Lee Pappas, Mrs. Dorothy Sawyer, Pat Hoefler and Jeffrey Murdock.

Students who survive the District Competition will advance to the Regional Forensic Festival.

Friday's District Festival will begin at 12 noon in the high school auditorium and will reconvene after a dinner hour at the new Lakeside School. Students will participate in the following categories: interpretive story telling, dramatic monologue, dramatic dialogue, declamation, radio news broadcasting, lyric poetry, extempore speaking, original oratory, humorous interpretive reading, and multiple reading.

Jack Romstad, speech coordinator at Bay de Noc Community College in Escanaba, will act as critic judge. Mrs. LaPointe is general director of the Festival.

Pitching Staff Starting To Worry Tiger Manager

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Manager Mayo Smith is beginning to get a little worried about his pitching staff but hopes the miserable performances of three of his starters will be rectified before opening day.

Tuesday Earl Wilson was bombed for 14 hits and 11 runs, all earned, as the Detroit Tigers were crushed by the Cincinnati Reds 16-1. It was the fourth lopsided Tiger loss of the exhibition season, the others being a 9-1 decision to St. Louis, a 12-1 route by the New York Mets, and a 13-1 drubbing by Baltimore.

"I feel this situation can be rectified in the next 11 days of the exhibition season," Smith said. "I feel this way, but you can't take things for granted. "Don't kid yourself that everything might go right as soon as spring training is over and the season starts," he added. "You can't turn things off and on."

But the Reds turned things on in their romp to push Wilson's spring earned-run-average from 2.57 to 7.10. The big righthander now has allowed 15 runs in 19 innings.

Last year's 31-game winner Denny McLain, who has been bothered by a sore arm, has a 5.40 spring ERA, while Joe Sparrma's ERA is 4.86. Only Mickey Lolich of the regular four-man rotation has looked good. He has a 2.25 mark.

"The control hasn't been very good," Smith said. "We've been too high this spring."

Prior to Tuesday's game Wilson didn't look bad. "The velocity of his fast ball has been good all spring," Smith said. Wilson added, "But I'm having trouble with my curve ball."

Pitching coach Johnny Sain dismissed the poor pitching performance by saying those things happen in spring training.

"It was just one of those days when the Red were hot," he said. "I think Wilson's been throwing real good but he just had a bad outing."

Detroit's only run came on a homer by Dick McAuliffe. The hard working second baseman now has 10 hits this spring. Four of them have been home runs and nine of the 10 were for extra bases.

Rookie lefthander Mike Kilkeny came on in the sixth for Detroit and allowed three unearned runs. Another rookie southpaw, Fred Scherman, finished up in the ninth and allowed two runs.

a real need for U. P. football coaches who normally are isolated from coaching schools in lower Michigan and Wisconsin. Badger Sporting Goods of Madison, Wis., co-sponsored the first clinic and over 75 coaches attended the two-day affair.

Comments urged a repeat of the clinic in 1965 and last year over 100 coaches attended the fifth annual clinic. Indications are that the 1969 clinic will break all records.

The Clinic continues to be a co-operative effort among area football coaches. Cvensgros still serves as director with Bob Dufour and Jerry Anzalone serving as co-directors. All football coaches from area schools including Don Pfofenhauer of Gladstone, Tom O'Neill of Holy Name and Jim Hirn, Jim Pinar and Roman Gill of Escanaba serve on the clinic committee.

Last year the committee decided to honor Upper Peninsula individuals who have distinguished themselves serving high school football. Ray Crandall, retired sports editor of the Escanaba Daily Press, was so honored last year and will be on hand this Friday night to present a U. P. Coaches Award to Jim Trethewey of the Marquette Mining Journal as Sportsman of the Year. Protenhauer will then present a coaches award to Jerry Pangrazzi of Marquette High School, who has announced his retirement from active coaching.

Registration for the two-day clinic can be made at the door Friday evening after 6. The registration fee includes all lectures, the party and luncheon. An increasing number of area fans have indicated interest in attending the clinic and everyone is welcome to attend the two-day session.

Hayes Captures NBA Point Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Elvin Hayes, the Big E of San Diego, became the first rookie in nine years to win the individual scoring championship of the National Basketball Association.

Final statistics released by the league today showed the 6-foot-9 star scored 2,327 points in 82 games for an average of 28.4. Not since Wilt Chamberlain, then with Philadelphia, did it in 1960 has a rookie won the NBA scoring title. Chamberlain scored 2,707 points in 72 games that season.

Hayes beat Earl Monroe of the Eastern Division champion Baltimore Bullets. Monroe had 2,965 points in 80 games. Billy Cunningham of Philadelphia was third at 2,034. Bob Rule of Seattle fourth with 1,965 and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati fifth with 1,955.

The breakdown on Hayes showed he played 3,695 minutes, made 930-of-2,083 field goal tries, 467-of-746 free throws, grabbed 1,406 rebounds and handed out 113 assists. He drew 266 personal fouls and fouled out of only two games.

Chamberlain, now with the Los Angeles Lakers, had the best field goal percentage, .583, and Larry Siegfried of the Boston Celtics was tops in free throws with an .864 percentage.

Chamberlain was the leader in rebounds with 1,712 for an average of 21.1 per game while Robertson set the pace in assists with 772 for 9.8 per game average.

The veteran Chamberlain, who already holds most of the league scoring records, put a couple of more in the book. He became the all-time NBA high scorer with his 1,664 in 81 games for a career total of 27,098 and extended to 787 his mark of playing the most consecutive games without fouling out.

Penguins Tip Minnesota, 3-1

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Freckle-faced Ron Snell caught everybody, including himself, by surprise when he scored his first National Hockey League goal in his first big league game.

"The puck hit the side of the net and came right out to me," Snell said after the marker started the Pittsburgh Penguins to a 3-1 victory over the Minnesota North Stars Tuesday night.

"If I would have missed it, there would be something wrong with me," he said. "I caught everybody by surprise. I was even surprised that it came so easy."

The Penguins kept their hopes alive of leaving the West Division cellar, moving without four points of the fifth-place North Stars.

Registration for the two-day clinic can be made at the door Friday evening after 6. The registration fee includes all lectures, the party and luncheon. An increasing number of area fans have indicated interest in attending the clinic and everyone is welcome to attend the two-day session.
